A Daily Summary of Motor Carrier Applications and of Decisions and Notices Issued by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration

DECISIONS AND NOTICES RELEASED September 11, 2015 -- 10:30 AM

NOTICE

Please note the timeframe required to revoke a motor carrier's operating authority for failing to have sufficient levels of insurance on file is a 33 day process. The process will only allow a carrier to hold operating authority without insurance reflected on our Licensing and Insurance database for up to three (3) days. Revocation decisions will be tied to our enforcement program which will focus on the operations of uninsured carriers. This process will further ensure that the public is adequately protected in case of a motor carrier crash. Accordingly, we are adopting the following procedure for revocation of authority: 1) The first notice will go out three (3) days after FMCSA receives notification from the insurance company that the carrier's policy will be cancelled in 30 days. This notification informs the carrier that it must provide evidence that it is in full compliance with FMCSA's insurance regulations within 30 days. 2) If the carrier has not complied with FMCSA's insurance requirements after 30 days, a final decision revoking the operating authority will be issued.

The Serendipity...

by Alexei Perciuleac

Hi, my name is Alex, I live and fish in the Chicago, Illinois area but I was born and raised in Eastern Europe. I've lived very happily in the US for 12 years now.

I've loved float fishing all my life but got into carp fishing in the summer of 2018 and I was captivated instantly. My first setup was an Ugly stick with whatever tackle I thought was reasonable 😊

Luckily, my first trip to the Chicago river was actually the day I met a real carp angler fishing with all the proper "Euro" gear. We even spoke the same language

Luckily, my first trip to the Chicago river was actually the day I met a real carp angler fishing with all the proper "Euro" gear. We even spoke the same language, so talk about coincidences? My new friend laughed at my setup but he was very nice and helped me set up my rod with some of his gear/end tackle and shortly thereafter, I was into my first carp. That carp wasn't the only thing that got hooked that day 😊 I immediately fell in love with Carp fishing and I haven't looked back with one single day of regret since...

Now that same guy has become one of my best friends and thanks to him, I was introduced to Chicago river, which is now my go to place locally and all the fish I catch from there are incredible!

catch from there are incredible!

I spent a lot of time scouring all social media platforms for any and all information about carp fishing. I learned much about the sport and met other like minded individuals that I am now very happy to call my friends!

Social media is also how I found out about the American Carp Society. Being a member has really helped my carp fishing. I remember when I received my welcome package and was reading through Vol 2 of the American Carper publication about all the potential that American waters have to offer and seeing all the pictures of all the boys catching all those awesome looking Mirror carp on the East Coast, and I was like, "WOW!! I WOULD LOVE TO ONE DAY HOLD A MIRROR LIKE THAT UP FOR THE CAMERA."

I have to say that the American Carp Society was definitely an inspiration for

I have to say that the American Carp Society was definitely an inspiration for me, so my goal is the same, to inspire others through what I now do and how I represent the sport in my pictures. But at the core of it all will always be my passion for this sport.

🔥 Memb

As far as angling experience, it was all trial and error until I figured what works for me in terms of bait and tackle.

I fish two of the most fished spots on the Chicago river, sometimes I get frustrated not being able to fish the spot I want because someone else is already in those spots fishing when I arrive at the swims but it's no big deal, it's a public water.

I vividly remember my very first session there on the river, I caught 5 carp all under 15 lb, including one with a black eye, so for a beginner it was a lot and I was and still am, very proud of that 1st session.

🌟 Member Ad

After that 1st time out, every session became a special experience with plenty of Unique looking fish, unique and interesting people passing by and others stopping to ask plenty of questions including what I was doing. There was one time I literally had to fight with some dudes who asked if I would give them the fish I caught.... I would not ever give my fish to these guys, I proudly catch and release all my fish!

This river still holds both my mirror and common persona bests! So to me, the Chicago river will always be a special place.

Member Access

I've even recently had a beautiful recapture experience with 9 months between the photographing the same fish. That's amazing to me!

🌟 Memb

As far as fishing tackle and baits, I prefer to use pop ups on Ronnie rigs 90% of the time. It just works well everywhere I go, but I always leave that other 10% for experimental fishing, trying new rigs and baits etc...

I have to admit that don't have much experience fishing lakes yet. I fished rivers more than anything else, the fight of the river carp is on another level than the typical lake carp in my opinion.

If there's one word that defines carp fishing for me is "passion". It doesn't matter where, when or with who.

I don't really consider myself an urban angler, I just adapt to what's around me and make the most of it. I will take a trip anywhere if we're talking carp fishing. I love the social vibe of urban fishing but I hope that one day anglers and just spectators will learn to pick up after themselves and not leave their trash and left-overs every where they go. That's why sometimes I just pack up and go away from the city life.

In conclusion I want to say that I'm so very grateful that I discovered this sport, I have met so many great people and I hope that one day we'll all see American Carp fishing gain the respect it truthfully deserves.

Thank you for taking the time to read my blog and allowing me to introduce myself here. I wish you much luck with your fishing...

Best wishes,

Alex

Don't ever think bikes are in any way cheaper. Something can always work better, upgrades, modifications, and then gear. Omg, the huge selection of gear and customizations there. ...

Because, ya know, each piece of gear has to match, then you have to match the bike... it is never ending.

Decedent's post shares his experience riding a new motorcycle for the first time. Brought this baby home last night. Took it out for a ride today. My first time on a super sport, first time on a liter bike. Accidentally popped a wheelie at the light ☐☐ Went 170 mph ☐ Yes not a beginner bike, but I wouldn't do it any other way.

Decedent records police at the scene of a motorcycle accident. Part1. The rider came in hot around the bend and wiped out a motorcycle and 3 people. Be careful who you ride with. Some riders are some 18 year olds that carry guns and drugs apparently. All these kids you see will be acting though in a minute looking for trouble. I will post the rest of this circus, just remember these kids faces because they're definitely up to no good. #motorcycle #bikelife #motorbikelife #araihelmet #cbr1000rr #bmw #s1000rr #honda #fireblade #kawasaki #ninja #zx6r #yamaha #suzuki #aprilia #ducati #alpinestars #shoei #gopro #dainese #ride #biker Part1. Decedent casts his fishing pole into the water. This used to be a great spot to fish. Now you see someone fishing on this dock almost every day which is ok, except for the part where some people take the fish to eat. Why would people eat the carp from the nasty water filled with anything you want ☹ Stay healthy I suppose. Tight lines ☹ #carprun #riverfishing #carpanglers #catchandrelease #nashtackle #orientrodsusa #carpycommando

Decedent crashes into the grass while riding his motorcycle. Most mistakes can be avoided. Slow down and don't ride beyond your skill level. Just stay humble and try to improve your skills in a parking lot or at the track. The streets are not a track and you can get lucky so many times before the luck runs out. Stay safe and ride smart. #motorcycle #bikelife #cbr1000rr #motorbike #ride

An associate's post about Decedent's passing. It is with a heavy heart that I share the news of the passing of my dear friend, brother in Christ, Alex Perciuleac Carp Angler . He left us this morning, and his absence leaves an immense void in all of our lives. He was like a little brother to me, and my partner in all of my fishing adventures. We have informed his family in Moldov and I ask that you pray for his family so the healing can began. My brother I will miss you, and all the memories we shared. I am sorry for our last argument, and I hope you can forgive me. Until I see you again in heaven, save a pegfor me next to you in the eternal, heavenly lake.

###With profound sorrow, we announce that Alexei Perciuleac is no longer with us. A generous, humorous soul, true friend and brother, always ready to help, Alexei left an indelible mark on our lives. More than a childhood friend full of shared adventures, he was a pillar of strength and vitality. Emigrating from Moldova to Chicago in 2008, he built a new life while cherishing his roots. Passionate about carp angling, he was a dedicated American Carp Society member, named Angler of the Month in June 2024, and shared his @serendipityangler adventures online with mottos like "Die with memories, not dreams." He was also an avid motorcycle enthusiast. We grieve the tragic news: Alexei lost his life in accident on the night of July 21 2025, in Chicago, Illinois, despite medical efforts. His deepest love was for his family in Moldova. As his friends, we rally support and condolences for them. Awaiting details, our goal is to repatriate Alexei to his homeland. Contributions will aid repatriation, funeral costs, and family support. Your generosity honors his joyful life. Rest in peace, Alexei—your spirit flows eternally with the rivers and roads you loved.

 Cu profundă durere, anunțăm că Alexei Perciuleac nu mai este printre noi. Un suflet generos, plin de umor, adevărat prieten și frate, mereu săritor la nevoie, Alexei a lăsat o generos, plin de umor, adevărat prieten și frate, mereu săritor la nevoie, Alexei a lăsat o amprentă de neșters în viețile noastre.

A fost mai mult decât un prieten din copilărie plin de aventuri împărtășite, el a fost un stâlp de putere și vitalitate. Emigrând din Moldova la Chicago în 2008, și-a construit o viață nouă păstrându-și rădăcinile. Pasionat de pescuitul la crap, a fost membru dedicat al Societății Americane de Crap, numit Pescarul Lunii în iunie 2024, și a împărtășit aventurile sale @serendipityangler online cu motto-uri precum „Mori cu amintiri, nu cu vise”. Era de asemenea un pasionat al motocicletelor.

Plângem vestea tragică: Alexei și-a pierdut viața într-un accident în noaptea de 21 iulie 2025, în Chicago, Illinois, în ciuda eforturilor medicale decesul a fost inevitabil. Cea mai mare dragoste a sa era pentru familia din Moldova. Ca prieteni, adunăm sprijin și condoleanțe pentru ei.

Scopul este să-l repatriem pe Alexei în Moldova. Contribuțiile vor ajuta la costurile de repatriere, înmormântare și sprijin familial. Generozitatea voastră onorează viața sa plină de bucurie.

Odihnește-te în pace, Alexei – spiritul tău curge veșnic cu râurile și drumurile pe care le-ai iubit.

С глубокой скорбью объявляем, что Алексей Перчиуляк больше не с нами. Щедрая душа, полная юмора, настоящий друг и брат, всегда готовый помочь, Алексей оставил неизгладимый след в наших жизнях.

Больше чем друг детства, полный общих приключений, он был опорой силы и жизненной энергии. Эмигрировав из Молдовы в Чикаго в 2008 году, он построил новую жизнь, храня корни. Страстный поклонник ловли карпа, он был преданным членом Американского общества карповой рыбалки, назван Рыболовом месяца в июне 2024 года, и делился приключениями @serendipityangler в сети с девизами вроде «Умирай с воспоминаниями, а не с мечтами». Он также был заядлым любителем мотоциклов.

Мы скорбим о трагической новости: Алексей погиб в аварии ночью 21 июля 2025 года в Чикаго, штат Иллинойс, несмотря на усилия врачей. Его самая большая любовь была к семье в Молдове. Как друзья, мы собираем поддержку и соболезнования для них.

Ожидая деталей, наша цель – репатриировать Алексея на родину. Вклады помогут с расходами на репатриацию, похороны и поддержку семьи. Ваша щедрость почтит его радостную жизнь.

Покойся с миром, Алексей – твой дух вечно течет с реками и дорогами, которые ты любил.

An associate's update about Decedent's memorial and funeral planning. Hi Guys, I wanted all of Alex Perciuleac Carp Angler friends to know what is happening at this moment. The family has been notified, and we are in the process of planning out the funeral and memorial. We have contacted the Moldovan Embassy to get the authorization needed to transfer his body back to his family. I know we all get inundated with gofund me stuff, but we in the carping community was his family here in the U.S. Please if you can help in any way financially, prayers, and forwarding this post, it will help his family cover the costs during this tragedy. <https://www.gofundme.com/.../best-friend-alexei.../cl/s...>

An associate's post dedicated to Decedent. My best friend and forever my brother. Words are failing me right now. It still doesn't feel real. I keep wishing this is just some horrible dream I'll wake up from. That you'll somehow call me and say "gotcha suka blyat". I wish we had more time, more time to ride side by side with the wind in our faces, more time to laugh until our stomachs hurt over dumb shit i pulled. More time to bicker over who's faster, who's better at what, or whose turn it was to pay. More time to grow old with this passion we both poured our hearts into. We were supposed to get old and gray, still wrenching on bikes, still talking shit, still brothers. My dear friend weren't just a riding buddy. You were a constant in my life, my best friend, my brother and my family. I hope wherever you are, you know how much you were loved. And I hope you felt it in every laugh we shared, every mile we rode together. I miss you already in ways I can't put into words. I promise I'll carry our dreams with me and see them through, for both of us. Watch over me, brother...I'll make you proud. Rest easy, Alex. This isn't goodbye. Just wait for me at the next stop. We've still got more dumb shit to do. Thank you for @pj_kawatsx @ibzz.media @lilasianblog and @motomaniac39 for capturing these photos. Photos I can look back on fondly

My best friend and forever my brother. Words are failing me right now. It still doesn't feel real. I keep wishing this is just some horrible dream I'll wake up from. That you'll somehow call me and say "gotcha suka blyat". I wish we had more time, more time to ride side by side with the wind in our faces, more time to laugh until our stomachs hurt over dumb shit i pulled. More time to bicker over who's faster, who's better at what, or whose turn it was to pay. More time to grow old with this passion we both poured our hearts into. We were supposed to get old and gray, still wrenching on bikes, still talking shit, still brothers.

My dear friend weren't just a riding

An associate's post dedicated to Decedent. @hrcmissile You were kind, compassionate, down for anything, a great friend, a great listener, wise, gave the best advice, funny, a great rider and an overall amazing person. I'll never forget the time you picked me up with Rex to go for a drive while we ate chicken nuggets to talked about life.. or the time you told me "you should ride like me" and we both started laughing. The time I tried popping a wheelie with you beside me and I watched you pop yours with excitement. And for the times I saw you drinking something and always gave me some. Or the times we made jokes on who would be the fastest on the curves. I'll miss your jokes, your smile and sharing this hobby with you. But all of our memories will live forever. You were passionate about riding, and although i thought about giving it up - i know you wouldn't agree. We all gained an angel, and you'll never be forgotten. Until next time my friend, I love you always. ☐

CRASH INVESTIGATION

Candice Bond, an experienced commercial accident attorney, said that in such cases, it is imperative to have an independent investigation conducted promptly to protect the rights of a victim.

"Commercial accidents are often complex, and many factors can play a role in these types of accidents," said Bond, a Managing Partner of Bond Legal.

"A skilled attorney can protect victims from trucking companies, which often send their own investigators to crash sites and possess a variety of resources they can utilize to defend a negligent truck driver.

"Your lawyer can advocate for you by hiring expert witnesses, conducting driver background checks, locating witnesses to the crash, and reviewing applicable insurance coverage, while carefully guiding a victim through the legal process."

WRONGFUL DEATH CLAIM

The family of the victim may pursue compensation for damages such as costs associated with the death, loss of income and companionship, and other hardships.

"A death to a family member after an accident is both tragic and devastating to a surviving family. The grief, shock, and anger can be overwhelming," said Bond.

She added, "Aside from the emotional suffering of those left behind, the death of someone close can have devastating financial implications. Loss of income and funeral costs alone can have tragic consequences when a family member is lost."

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS (August 1, 2025) – A 37-year-old motorcyclist from Lake Zurich has tragically died in an Arlington Heights dump truck accident on Route 53.

Cook County officials are saying that the accident took place around 1:29 am on July 21. Alexei Perciuleac was riding his motorcycle on Route 53 by Ron Road when he was involved in a collision with a dump truck.

Several people initiated a call to 911 to report the motorcycle crash. Paramedics were called to the scene and found the victim unresponsive in the roadway.

Despite life-saving measures, Alexei Perciuleac was pronounced dead at the scene. A full investigation into the dump truck accident remains ongoing at this time.

You can help support the family of the victim through GoFundMe. According to the online fundraiser, "With profound sorrow we announce that Alexei Perciuleac is no longer with us. A generous, humorous soul, true friend and brother, always ready to help, Alexei left an indelible mark on our lives. More than a childhood friend full of shared adventures, he was a pillar of strength and vitality. Emigrating from Moldova to Chicago in 2008, he built a new life while cherishing his roots."

Liability for Cook County Dump Truck Accidents

Dump trucks can be incredibly dangerous to pedestrians, motorcyclists, and everyone in a passenger vehicle. According to TDI, "The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that 536 dump truck-related deaths and 7,270 serious injuries occurred in the U.S. between 2015 and 2020. Many of these resulted from tip-overs caused by unbalanced loads." Dump truck companies should take several actions to help prevent collisions.

- Maintenance: Dump truck companies should ensure that their vehicles are routinely inspected and well maintained. Any type of vehicle system failure can cause a dump truck to become unstable and substantially increase the odds of a crash.
- Training: Dump trucks can be incredibly difficult to operate in the best of circumstances. Truck companies must ensure that their drivers are intimately familiar with how their vehicle operates.
- Compliance: Truck companies should ensure that they are compliant with all hours of service regulations. Having dump truck drivers work too many hours in a day or week could potentially leave them to become dangerously fatigued.

Dump truck drivers must operate with an abundance of caution to avoid colliding with any vehicle in the roadway. Among other things, they must maintain a safe distance from the vehicle ahead of them. Pursuant to 625 ILCS 5/11-710, the driver of a motor vehicle shall not follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of such vehicles and the prevailing traffic conditions on the roadway. If a truck driver fails to slow down to avoid a collision with a motorcyclist, they could be held at fault through a civil claim.

with a motorcyclist, they could be held at fault through a civil claim.

Employers in Illinois are considered vicariously liable for the wrongful actions of their employees. In short, employers are responsible when their workers make mistakes. This is also true if a truck driver was employed by some company when they were involved in a collision. For vicarious liability to apply, the truck driver must've been working within the course and scope of their job duties. This may include situations where they were transporting goods from one location to another. Gathering evidence is essential after any truck accident.

- Surveillance Footage: Many collisions are captured by traffic cameras. Even if an accident was not captured by traffic cameras, it is common for businesses to have surveillance cameras that may have captured the accident.
- Accident Scene: The scene of any accident can reveal a great deal about what happened. For example, a lack of skid marks in the roadway can help demonstrate that a truck driver didn't even attempt to brake prior to a collision.
- Eyewitnesses: Another important resource is the testimony of eyewitnesses. They can help indicate what happened prior to a collision.

Truck accidents are often highly preventable. They tend to be the results of truck drivers that are failing to observe traffic regulations. This can include situations where these drivers make dangerous lane changes or travel too fast for the prevailing conditions. Unlike smaller vehicles, a commercial truck traveling at freeway speeds can take the length of two football fields to come to a safe stop. Sadly, these drivers often do everything in their power to deny responsibility when they're involved in a serious crash. This is why it can be so important to have any truck accident thoroughly investigated by an outside party.

Investigating Cook County Dump Truck Accidents

We at Horwitz Horwitz & Associates extend our deepest condolences to the family of Alexei Perciuleac. Any person that may have more information about what happened should reach out to the police. There needs to be a thorough investigation into what went wrong. Many questions remain unanswered. What was the speed of the dump truck driver prior to the collision? Did the truck driver have a clean driving record? When was the last time this vehicle was properly maintained?

Alexei Perciuleac, Kind-Hearted Friend and Passionate Angler, Tragically Dies in Accident in Chicago, IL

With deep sorrow, we report the untimely passing of Alexei Perciuleac, who tragically lost his life in an accident on the night of July 21, 2025, in Chicago, Illinois. Despite medical efforts, Alexei's death was confirmed, leaving a profound void in the hearts of those who knew him.

Alexei, who emigrated from Moldova to Chicago in 2008, was known for his generous spirit, sharp sense of humor, and unwavering friendship. A passionate angler, he was a dedicated member of the American Carp Society and was honored as Angler of the Month in June 2024. Through his social media presence, especially under the handle @serendipityangler, Alexei shared his love for carp fishing and often inspired others with his motto: "Die with memories, not dreams."

In addition to his love for fishing, Alexei was an avid motorcycle enthusiast, always embracing life with a sense of adventure. His greatest love, however, was his family back in Moldova, to whom he remained deeply connected.

A GoFundMe campaign has been launched to help repatriate Alexei's body and cover funeral expenses. As friends and loved ones rally to support his family, the community continues to honor Alexei's joyful life and enduring legacy.

Rest in peace, Alexei. Your spirit will forever flow with the rivers and roads you cherished.
