Hey I saw a good quote yesterday. It said you know someone loves you when you enter a relationship with baggage and they help you unpack. I think more people should accept that everyone has a life and try to work together to meld a relationship opposed to it being a "my way or the highway". It would be a better world. Just saying!

REPOST

You've done one of these :

- 1: walked into a room, forget what you needed, walked out , and then remembered.
- 2: when you were younger, drew the sun in the corner of the paper
- 3: when you were Little, thought the shape of a real heart was actually "❤️"
- 4: closed the fridge door really slow, just to see when the lights went off.
- 5: Tried to balance the light , between the ON & OFF

Why is it only black lives matter it should be all lives matter no matter if your black,white,brown. A human life is a life that matters and if you don't break the law you won't have to deal with blue lives it's not that hard to obey the law

Well in the event your partner dies you get left w nothing....paperwork is necessary whether it be marriage or a living will some type of legalities need to be prepared

Nina Trujillo exactly. There are plenty of other ways such as making a will as everybody should have anyways in a perfect world. 🤔 also when you purchase properties there are certain ways to do the title where the other party party inherit so really it's pretty unnecessary to actually sign the documents from the state ( marriage certificate) there are other ways to go around things. 🤔 and if you marry the right person they're always gonna make sure you're straight regardless

Nina Trujillo what about common law once you've lived together 7 years besides the will?
