His social media included promotional posts for his auto body and painting businesses, car listings, and tributes to sponsors and fellow riders. Henao also documented numerous father-son outings to places like Disney World, New York City, Chuck E. Cheese, and beaches—often expressing deep religious gratitude and affection for his son. Legal records show multiple traffic-related infractions dating back to 2013, including speeding and failure to register a vehicle. Notably, a civil dissolution of marriage case was filed in 2019. Throughout 2022 and 2023, he remained physically active with postings involving cliffside hikes, pool activities, and business promotions. Just weeks before the incident, he was again riding motorcycles in Colombia and listing a BMW for sale.

After DOI, Subject's social media activity indicates a continued presence in business and personal pursuits. In early January 2024, he confirmed his injuries (fractured ribs and punctured lung) in a direct message exchange. Within days, he resumed posting, including listings for vehicles and business services. Despite the injury, Subject continued to manage his auto body business and advertise services related to painting, jet ski repair, and vehicle transport. He also traveled multiple times—including to Puerto Rico and Colombia—and was pictured boating, attending races, and standing on uneven terrain such as boat decks and cement walls. Emotional tributes throughout 2024 and 2025 highlight his grief over the death of his mother. He remained physically engaged with his son, including birthday celebrations, motorcycle rides, and attending sporting events. As of July and August 2025, Henao continued to post vehicle listings and promotional content for his businesses. A pending civil negligence lawsuit, filed by Henao as the plaintiff in April 2025, is also noted.

A man wearing a red and black jacket with 'HONDA' and 'FOX' logos, a grey cap, and a red fanny pack is holding a glass of beer. He is standing in a crowded street at night, decorated with string lights and a large neon light sculpture of a person. In the background, there are buildings and a sign for 'Pastor'.
