CREAVEN v. CREAVEN (2018)

Court of Appeals of Texas, Houston (14th Dist.).

Joyce CREAVEN, Appellant v. Caroline CREAVEN, Appellee

NO. 14-17-00128-CV

Decided: May 22, 2018

Panel consists of Justices Boyce, Jamison, and Brown.

Sean Michael Reagan, Houston, TX, for Appellant. Bradford Laney, Robert McGee Bowick Jr., Houston, TX, for Appellee.

OPINION

This is a tale of three street names. Caroline Creaven sued her mother Joyce Creaven for allegedly improperly withdrawing funds from Caroline's college fund.¹ The trial court granted Caroline's motion for substituted service of process and ordered substituted service. The affidavit in support of the motion, the substituted service order, and the return of service referenced addresses for Joyce with three different but similar street names. After Caroline purportedly served Joyce, Caroline moved for a no-answer default judgment, which the trial court granted. Joyce complains on appeal that the default judgment is void because Caroline did not strictly comply with the terms of the order granting substituted service in that the address in the return of service varied from the address in the order.² Concluding that Caroline failed to create a record reflecting that she served Joyce at the correct address, we reverse and remand.

Caroline's motion for substituted service was supported by her process server's "Affidavit in Support of Motion for Alternate Service" in which the process server attested, on page one, that he attempted to serve Joyce five times at an address on "Cambrian Park Court" in Sugar Land, Texas and, on page two, that he had determined Joyce's "usual place of business, usual place of abode or other place where [she could] probably be found" was at an address on "Cambrian Court" in Sugar Land.³ In its "Order Authorizing Substitute Service" the trial court ordered service to be completed on Joyce at an address on "Cambrian

Post by Subject about a friend's wedding where she was the Maid of Honor. Shares photos of Subject. it's every little girl's childhood dream to stand by her best friend as she marries the love of her life—and Pheebs, you made that dream come true for me. 🥰 i don't think little us could have ever imagined just how breathtakingly beautiful of a bride you'd be, or how perfectly magical your wedding would turn out to be 🥰 being your maid of honor was the greatest honor of my life. i love you more than words will ever capture, Mrs. Ravesies — to the moon & to Saturn 🥰
