Grief is hard, and who has time to mourn? ... See more

At Ribbon of Sadness, we offer grief coaching and retreats to parents who are going through the loss of a child. Our programs and resources provide meaningful support and assistance for those who are experiencing grief, helping them to cope and find hope for the future. We understand the importance....

Helen Dycus Obituary

Helen Marie Huxley Dycus
February 3, 1927 ~ December 31, 2016
Resident of Richmond, CA

Helen was born in Winnetka, CA in 1927 and she died in Richmond, CA. She was the second child of Al and Amy Huxley. Her sister Barbara was the first born. Her brother Kenneth Huxley survives her.

Helen and her husband Bob were married in June 1951. They established their home in Richmond, CA. Their marriage was blessed with four children: Fred (Tracee), Peter, Delia (Rob) and Jim. They provided 13 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Helen lived a life of service and love. Besides her magnificent accomplishments as a wife, mother and matriarch, she taught kindergarten students for 31 years and Sunday School students for 27 years.

Helen was an excellent musician. She sang in the church choir and played her flute as a member of ensembles and for church services. She was a long-time member of Club Mendelssohn. She loved her fellow members and the music they produced and enjoyed.

We will have a Celebration of her life at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, 3200 Barrett Avenue, Richmond, CA at 11:00 AM on Saturday, January 28, 2017.

In lieu of flowers, donate to your favorite charity or do a good deed for someone.

connect IN COMMUNITY

Live as ONE

What is your story of turning to Jesus for the first time and a key moment or two since then? Who showed you what it looks like to turn to Jesus in life?

What barriers in everyday life can get in the way of sharing your story and faith in Jesus with someone else?

Live by the WORD

Prayerfully read through
1 Thessalonians 2:7-20

How is discipleship like the love and guidance of a good mother and good father? Notice specific descriptive words and verbs in the passage.

Notice the key word "imitators" in 1 Thess. 16-7 and 2:14. How does that relate to Paul's use of a good mother and good father? How does that help you see what discipleship has looked like in your life or could look like in the future?

Are hardships and joy mutually exclusive according to 1 Thess. 1:2? If not, what is that joy connected to? How can that help us experience more joy practically in everyday life as Christians?

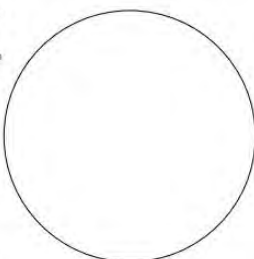

Live as SENT

What is your next step of joy in being a disciple of Jesus in 2018?

What is your next step of joy in making a disciple of Jesus in 2018?

WHAT'S YOUR SPHERE?

William Dycus Obituary

William Robert Dycus

1926 ~ 2022

Resident of Richmond, CA

Bob Dycus was born into a large family in 1926 and grew up in Elk City, Oklahoma, where the Dust Bowl and the Great Depression toughened his resolve to work hard and help others more than himself throughout the rest of his life.

At age 17 he joined the Navy during WWII, and made use of the GI Bill to graduate from the University of Oklahoma in 1949.

Bob then moved west to Richmond, and married his wife Helen in 1951. Over their 65 years of marriage, they raised four children (Fred, Peter, Delia and Jim), over 12 grandchildren and over 20 great-grandchildren.

Bob worked his entire career in the Richmond School District, as teacher and Vice Principal at Harry Ells High School, Principal at Adams Jr. High, and Director of Secondary Education.

Throughout his life he was busy with many charities, serving in the Methodist church and instructing others in his faith, both by words and actions.

We will have a memorial Celebration of his Life at 10:00 AM on Saturday, April 30th, 2022 at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, 3200 Barrett Ave., Richmond. Memorial donations in his name can be sent to the St. Luke's Scholarship Fund or to West Contra Costa Retired Educators Scholarship Fund <https://wccrescholarship.org>

The screenshot shows a TikTok video player. The video content is a close-up of a meal on a white paper tray with a colorful logo pattern. The meal consists of a portion of golden-brown french fries topped with green jalapeños and shredded cheese, and a large burrito wrapped in a blue and white checkered paper. A silver fork is visible next to the fries. The video player interface includes a search bar at the top with the text "Find related content", a progress bar at the bottom showing "00:07/00:10", and various interaction icons like heart, comment, and share.

I love you. This is how it is with my partners fam. We have been together like 17yrs and I'm still treated like I don't belong. No matter what I've tried. It really hurts. I choose to be fam w/you 💜

Go out to an open field where no one can hear you. And scream as loud as you can. Then sit down and allow yourself to do whatever feels comfortable. It works. Good luck my dear.

I have a very large family, but not a lot of support. My late grandparents raised me. I feel very alone.

You belong because you are here.

Also, I would like to say that sometimes these feelings can be due to overlooked medical issues in women like anemia, hormones etc. Don't give up the good fight. Look at the we do not care club. Lots of women in the struggle.

And yes, you are loved. Yes you belong and yes you can overcome. But most of us can't do it alone. Find your sisterhood.

I am so sorry you are feeling out of place. It is difficult to grasp in the unkindness of the world that you are loved. So I will repeat it. You are a daughter of the king. You are loved. You are loved. ❤️

I feel your frustration. So. VERY. Much. There should be a free non-partisan resource for people to get information about issues like gerrymandering available at polling locations, sos voter websites, etc. Some people don't know how to find reliable, simple explanations like on Khan Academy, YouTube, or elsewhere. I'm a teacher, so I can explain it in simple terms, and I have educated friends who contact me with questions about voting issues all the time. Not everyone has the same access to information, unfortunately. Yet ANOTHER thing we need to fix!!
