I try to stay out of your posts, because I like a drama free life.. but I read this & felt like I should give you a path to a different perspective. And I'm not here to argue, or cause any drama. I'm just here with a different side, and you can do with it what you will.

What if someone I was dating said "fuck that kid." Referring to Kennedy. You'd be pissed, ready to fight. Nowadays, people are dating for long term commitments.. not just to be dating. And furthermore, it's never okay for a significant other to say that about someone's child, you're the father too or involved with. Period. And unfortunately, that falls back on you. Because you should be dating according to a woman you'd like to be Kennedy's step mom one day.. not just someone you want a sexual relationship with. Change your lifestyle, and think long term.. then you won't have to question things like that or be put into a predicament where that statement may or may not affect your relationship with the child's mother or the child, or friends for that matter. Father or not. You wouldn't stand for someone to say that about Kennedy, Javier, Dariah, or Natalia. Children should not be brought into a situation where it's grown folks business. Ever. Just food for thought, and a partially bias opinion. Because I am a mom, and I wouldn't stand for that to be said about my child, from a boyfriend or a friend.

When I say I Love my family y'all I mean it ❤Words can't even express how grateful and appreciative we are. Baby Ava has so much love and support around her and she hasn't even arrived yet. Y'all really had me ready to cry when I saw how beautiful everything looked. I want to thank my mom Tina Rae Mcloud , God mother Lynell Johnson and my cousins LaShanda Harris and Cayla Bayla for all the time and money put in to this beautiful event. Y'all are loved and appreciated beyond measure. Thank you to my Dad Jayson Brazell for sending money for the Venue and Uncle Tony for making sure we had plenty of food. Thank you to my favorite chef My Brother Jayson Brazell for cooking all the food. Son you really did ur Big One □□ everything was delicious. Thank you to all my friends and family who helped set up and make appetizers and listen to me stress and rant about making this perfect □□□ I love y'all. Thank you to everyone who showed up to have a great time with us. We appreciate y'all spending y'all hard earned coin coming from out of town and from across town. Thank you for all the gifts from everyone. We appreciate y'all.
