The image is a screenshot of a Facebook profile page for Jim Holt. At the top, the browser address bar shows the URL 'facebook.com/jim.holt.790'. Below the browser bar is the Facebook navigation bar with icons for home, friends, video, marketplace, groups, messages, notifications, and the user's profile picture. The main header features a large cover photo of a bridge over a river at sunset. Below the cover photo is a circular profile picture of Jim Holt, a middle-aged man with short grey hair, smiling. To the right of the profile picture, the name 'Jim Holt' is displayed in bold, with '2.4K friends' underneath. Further right are three buttons: 'Add friend' (blue), 'Message' (grey), and a dropdown menu (grey). Below the header is a horizontal menu with tabs for 'Posts', 'About', 'Friends', 'Photos', 'Sports', 'Music', and 'More'. The 'Posts' tab is selected. The 'Intro' section on the left lists: 'Former President & CEO at Memphis in May International Festival - Retired', 'Lives in Memphis, Tennessee', 'From New Carlisle, Ohio', and 'Single'. Below the intro are three small photos: a group of people, Jim Holt with a baby, and a group of children. The 'Posts' section on the right shows a post from Jim Holt dated March 24 at 11:12 PM. The post text reads: 'Granddaughter Birthday Weekend in Birmingham... belatedly celebrated Granddaughter Mary turning 13 at a birthday dinner at Culinary Dropout on Friday night. On Saturday we celebrated Granddaughter Emma turning 6 at a Pirate Party at Chuckie Cheese and then went bowling at Vestavia Bowling. Both liked their gift from Grampy and had a good time. Family Fun!'. Below the text are two photos: one of a young girl and another of a group of people at a party. A 'Filters' button is visible in the top right of the posts section.

HOLT, Paul

OBITUARIES

Jan 8, 2023

HOLT, Jr., Paul

Of West Chester, OH, passed away peacefully in his sleep Sept. 4, 2022, at the age of 96. He was born May 29, 1926, in Des Moines, IA, to Louise Welsh Holt and Paul L. Holt, Sr. of New Carlisle, OH.

A natural-born salesman, Holt had a persuasive knack for closing deals. The best example of this, perhaps, occurred on March 29, 1956, when he married Ellen Louise Miller following a two-year courtship that first began on a blind date in the summer of 1954. No doubt on this date night he charmed his future bride with a "pitch" that included stories of his trumpet playing skills and his Expert Sharpshooter and Distinguished Rifleman awards, records, and medals. Together, Paul and Louise built a life that included hard work and enjoying its rewards, raising and witnessing the accomplishments of their three children, and celebrating cherished visits and vacations spent with family, especially their grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

From his early years in grade school and high school and continuing throughout his university studies, U.S. Navy military assignments, business endeavors and personal life, he moved, lived, or spent significant time across much of the United States. (Iowa, Texas, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Washington, Illinois, Massachusetts, Ohio, Maine, Georgia, California, Rhode Island, and New York)

He attended colleges in Madison, WI, and in Dayton, OH, and graduated with a BBA majoring in Finance and Marketing at the University of Wisconsin - a foreshadowing that would serve him very well throughout his professional career in the automotive industry.

With a genuine (and firm) handshake, Holt amassed many friends, colleagues, and customers over the years, and could recount them all by name, place, date, story, or sale. In the automobile world, he climbed the corporate ladder at Buick Motor Division in sales, parts/service, promotions, merchandising, and dealership/franchising departments. He also owned and operated several new and used car dealerships of his own in Ohio including Holt Buick - GMC in New Carlisle, Ohio, which he operated for over 25 years. He was one of the first Subaru dealers in North America in the late 1960's. He experienced an insider's view of General Motors Corporation during the pinnacle of its influence in U.S. record sales, and market share. And, in the Mad Men era of big deals and national automobile advertising campaigns, he worked alongside marketing and public relations pros.

Holt never ran for public office but was always interested in contributing to the betterment of the communities where he lived and worked. In 1989 he was appointed to the Planning and Zoning Board by the Mayor of New Carlisle, Ohio, and served as a board member for five years, the last two as its Chairman.

He was honored to accept an invitation to join Lions Club International where he remained active and formed lifelong friendships through his membership in the Ohio business clubs. He served as President of the Hamilton Lions Club, President of the New Carlisle Lions Club, President of the Troy Lions Club (twice), and was honored by the Troy Club with the Melvin Johns Fellowship Award. In 2011, he earned a Lions Club 100% Attendance Pin for his 50 years of perfect attendance. He deeply enjoyed the art of "pin trading" among Lions Club members.

Holt was quick to share his life's experiences, his wit and wisdom, his knowledge of automobiles, and his well-curated coin collection hobby with all who took an interest - and there were many.

Most people go their entire lives without their life story being written, yet Paul L. Holt did just that. In 2019 at the age of 93, he completed a 40-year project and self-published a 124-page hard cover book that chronicles his own lineage of Holt families dating back to records retained since the early 1830's. His desire was for this work to be useful to other families tracing their genealogy, so he donated copies of the book to libraries, organizations and other institutions in the South and Midwest.

Paul L. Holt is predeceased by his beloved wife of more than 61 years, Ellen Louise Miller Holt (d: Aug. 19, 2017).

He is survived by his only sibling, Barbara Louise Holt Hunt of Sacramento, CA; three children, Paul Clayton Holt (Linda) of Lakeland, FL, James L. Holt (Jim) of Memphis, TN, and Mary Holt Bubier (Michael) of West Chester, OH; six grandchildren, Alex Holt (Jordan) of Mountain Brook, AL, Andy Holt (Anna) of Germantown, TN, Laurie Holt Stiles (J.L.) of Germantown, TN, Liza Holt of Hoover, AL, Christopher Bubier of West Chester, OH, Marianne Holt of Lakeland, FL; and seven great-grandchildren.

*Subject was on celebrating his birthday with some of his children and grandchildren at a restaurant "We had a BDJ family birthday celebration tonight Mexican style at Salsa, with Andy, Anna, Laurie, J.L. and grandkids Gabe, Olivia, Emma and sweet baby James. Olivia and Emma proudly presented me with a bottle of Blanton's which they then wanted to try. Livi said, Grampy you always say it's nice to share. Had a tough time responding to that one. Fun family time!"

We had a BDJ family birthday celebration tonight Mexican style at Salsa, with Andy, Anna, Laurie, J.L. and grandkids Gabe, Olivia, Emma and sweet baby James. Olivia and Emma proudly presented me with a bottle of Blanton's which they then wanted to try. Livi said, Grampy you always say it's nice to share. Had a tough time responding to that one. Fun family time!

Memphis River Parks sues Memphis in May festival

Memphis River Parks has sued the Memphis in May festival for damages at the newly redesigned Tom Lee Park, Memphis River Parks told FOX13.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The President and CEO of Memphis in May said that the annual event is looking for a new home other than Tom Lee Park.

James L. Holt, the President and CEO, sent an email to barbecue fest participants Thursday night. He said that Memphis River Parks is billing the event 1.4 million dollars for reported damages to Tom Lee Park following last May event.

In an email, Holt stated:

We regret this circumstance and appreciate all the hard work and understanding from Memphis in May competition teams over the past several years as this is not the outcome that we have been working hard to achieve

Memphis in May will go on in 2024 and in the future and they are currently working to identify a new location for the contest.

Jim you look so vibrant and that says a lot seeing what you've gone through the last several years with the "nonsense in the park" debacle. I'm still waiting to hear from the city on how they plan to generate revenue from that work of art on the river 🙄 ...

MEMPHIS (CelebrityAccess) – Veteran industry leader and President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Memphis in May International Festival, Jim Holt, has been chosen for the prestigious Hall of Fame with the International Festivals & Events Association (IFEA).

“The International Festivals & Events Association is pleased to announce the induction of one of the festival and event industry’s finest professionals into the IFEA Hall of Fame – James L. Holt, CFEE, President & CEO of the Memphis in May International Festival in Memphis, TN, USA,” said the IFEA in announcing the honor.

The IFEA Hall of Fame recognizes those outstanding individuals who, through their exceptional work and achievements, have made a significant contribution to the Festivals and Events Industry and an impactful difference in the communities they serve.

Induction into the Hall of Fame is considered the highest of industry honors. Selected from a group of his industry peers, Holt joins the prestigious ranks of 64 others inducted into the Hall of Fame along with industry leaders from Pasadena Tournament of Roses, Macy’s Parades & Events, Kentucky Derby Festival, Rotterdam Festivals, Pro Football Hall of Fame, Zambelli Fireworks, Indy 500 Fest and Ottawa’s National Capital Commission.

“Under Jim’s leadership, Memphis in May was catapulted into the national and international spotlight,” said Leigh Shockey, Memphis in May Board Chair, “So Jim’s induction into the IFEA Hall of Fame is a fitting tribute recognizing his decades of leadership in the industry and his accomplishments as our leader at the Memphis in May International Festival.”

Jim will be honored at the 66th Annual IFEA Convention in Texas, where he will be presented with his award during the IFEA Awards Luncheon on Wednesday (October 11).

Memphis in May has suspended Beale Street Music Festival for 2024,

The three-day music festival will not be held in 2024, according to an email from Memphis in May obtained Thursday by The Commercial Appeal. Memphis in May sent a new release officially announcing the news later Thursday afternoon.

"We wanted to share that the Board of Directors has made the very difficult decision to suspend the Beale Street Music Festival in 2024," said Kevin Grothe, vice president of sponsorships for Memphis in May, in the email.

Grothe added that several factors played into the decision including, "record financial loss in 2022 and 2023... decline in attendance, increasing costs of artists fees, and the extraordinary $1.4 million bill to repair Tom Lee Park."

Beale Street Music Festival returned to Tom Lee Park for the first time since 2019. Here's a look at the fans who turned out for the festival.

In the same email, Memphis in May confirmed that it would be moving forward with its two other major events: the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest, which will take place May 15-18 at Liberty Park, and the Great American River Run, set for May 25, in Downtown Memphis.

The news release stated the music fest was being paused "to explore all options to present an event in the future that meets the standards and authenticity expected of the brand. "

"Obviously, Memphis in May has built a very authentic brand beginning with the name and location of the music festival," said James L. Holt, Memphis in May president and CEO. "With a pending lawsuit and the event now unwelcomed in the new Tom Lee Park, future Beale Street Music Festivals will face fundamental challenges."

The news comes following Memphis in May's Oct. 3 announcement that it had suffered a record \$3.48 million loss from its 2023 operations. It also reported attendance at Beale Street Music Festival "fell to its lowest level in over thirty years at 37,805."

MEMPHIS IN MAY: Al Kapone and Muck Sticky on Beale Street Music Fest news: Sadness and disappointment

Beale Street Music Festival returned to Tom Lee Park this year for the first time since 2019. It was canceled in 2020 and 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic and was held at Liberty Park in 2022 due to ongoing renovations at Tom Lee Park.

But the return of Memphis in May events — including music fest and the barbecue contest — to Tom Lee Park proved to be costly.

The festival's events at Tom Lee resulted in \$1,425,366 damages, which are owed to the Memphis River Parks Partnership, which manages the park. In September, Memphis River Parks filed a lawsuit against Memphis in May, seeking to collect an outstanding balance of $675,000 for the damages to Tom Lee.

"We have proudly presented the Beale Street Music Festival as a world-class entertainment event for nearly half a century," 2024 board chair Al Gossett said in the news release. "Our board's decision is to not disappoint or underdeliver against the high standards and expectations of fans and supporters of this city's largest annual event and signature music festival."

MEMPHIS (CelebrityAccess) – Memphis in May International Festival announced that after seeing the lowest attendance in 30 years in 2023, the Beale Street Music Festival will go on hiatus for 2024. According to Memphis in May International, as a result of the decline in attendance and other factors, the organization reported a record financial loss of $3.48 million from the festival in 2023. Additionally, festival organizers faced challenges in producing the festival in the newly revamped Tom Lee Park, including uncertainty around an ongoing lawsuit filed against the festival by the Memphis River Parks Partnership. The suit alleges that the festival inflicted $1.4 million in damages to the park in 2023.

“Obviously, Memphis in May has built a very authentic brand beginning with the name and location of the music festival,” said James L. Holt, President & CEO. “With a pending lawsuit and the event now unwelcomed in the new Tom Lee Park, future Beale Street Music Festivals will face fundamental challenges.”

“We have proudly presented the Beale Street Music Festival as a world-class entertainment event for nearly half a century. Our board’s decision is to not disappoint or underdeliver against the high standards and expectations of fans and supporters of this city’s largest annual event and signature music festival,” stated Al Gossett, 2024 Board Chair.

According to festival organizers, they will explore their options for the future of the event while it’s on pause for 2024. Additionally, the festival’s other events, including the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest and the Great American River Run, will proceed this year as planned.

The three-day Beale Street Music Festival has been held each year in the city’s Tom Lee Park at the foot of Beale Street in Memphis since 1977, annually attracting upwards of 100,000 visitors to the city. In 2023, the festival featured a lineup that included Greta Van Fleet, The Lumineers, Alison Krauss, Lucinda Williams, Robert Plant, and AJR, among others.

The main content area displays 'All activity' with tabs for 'Posts', 'Comments', and 'Reactions'. A post is shown where James L. Holt reposted a post by Laurie (Holt) Stiles, a 3rd-degree connection. The post text reads: 'ZBo and I have a little announcement to make... as of last Thursday, a partnership with HHM CPAs and the Memphis Grizzlies officially went into effect! I've been working on this project since mid-July and it is officially a done deal... in ink! So now I can talk about it and the fun starts, with the help of our firm's incredible marketing team (Makaylah Ariazi and Tommy Marino) alongside me to pull it off. Stay tuned Memphis friends... you're about to begin seeing a massive brand campaign for HHM CPAs at FedEx Forum. I couldn't be more excited for our firm! Most of all, I'm excited to see what happens when we combine two of my favorite things... the wonderful world of public accounting and Memphis Grizzlies basketball. I am so incredibly grateful and thrilled to see our leadership team invest in the growth opportunities in the 901. Let's gooooo!' Memphis in May International Festival

November 29, 2023 · 🌐

Yesterday our long-time President & CEO Jim Holt announced his retirement after 25 years of leadership at the Memphis in May Festival. Over the course of Jim's two and a half decades with the organization, Memphis in May gained national acclaim and won numerous awards and honors including 244 Pinnacle Awards from the International Festival and Events Association. Jim was recently inducted into the prestigious IFEA Hall of Fame as their 65th member.

During Jim's tenure Memphis in May Festival events attracted over 3.4 million attendees from Memphis and the region as well as visitors from across the country and around the world. In the nine years in which studies were commissioned, the festival generated an economic impact for the City of Memphis of nearly $800 million dollars, contributing significantly to our local economy. We thank Jim for his dedicated service and leadership and wish him all the best in his future retirement.

Disheartening to see you go. Taking the biggest heart in Memphis away from an industry that has no hearts at all, I can't say it doesn't suck soo bad. I'm relieved Mack Weaver is taking the reins rather than other options who shall remain nameless. Take a bow, sir, you've most definitely earned it! 🙏

Linda Holt Obituary

Published by Legacy Remembers on Nov. 10, 2024.

 Send Flowers

Long-time Lakeland resident Linda Holt passed away unexpectedly at her home on Sunday, November 3, due to heart failure. A native of Toledo, Ohio, Linda relocated to Florida in the late 1980s to be near and provide care for her parents.

She graduated from Saint Vincent School of Nursing and received her master's degree in nursing from the Medical College of Ohio at Toledo. She spent her career caring for others as a Nurse Practitioner at various clinics and hospitals in Florida. Before retiring in 2022, Linda spent the last thirteen years of her professional career with the City of Lakeland Employee Wellness Center, where she was known for her kind and gentle nature in treating patients. She was well-liked among her fellow medical team members and was known for her witty nature and keen sense of humor, in addition to her thoughtful treatment of all she encountered.

A lifelong learner, Linda was an avid reader and knowledgeable about many subjects. She had a great love for animals and gardening and was an amazing chef. She enjoyed travel, and after retiring, she and her husband traveled to Italy, France, England, and Mexico. Their most recent trip took Linda to the Northeast, where they enjoyed the fall foliage throughout the New England states.

She leaves behind her devoted and loving husband, Paul C. Holt, who she first met while they were both students at Ohio State University. They were happily married for 23 years. The light of her life was their daughter, Marianne Elizabeth Holt, a student at Florida Polytechnic University. Linda also leaves behind a sister, Karen Hartman of Wauchula, and numerous nieces and nephews. Preceding her in death are her parents, Donald and Frances Darling, and brothers, Thomas and James Darling.

A memorial service is scheduled for Saturday, December 14, at 3:00 p.m. at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Lakeland, FL. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to Golden Retriever Rescue of Mid-Florida.

*Subject took care of his two youngest granddaughters for three days and took them to various locations "This past weekend I took care of my two youngest granddaughters, for three days, and I am happy to report there were no injuries, illnesses or required hospitalizations. However, there was a near riot when I attempted to enter the school pick-up line in front of 15 other cars parked on the side of the road, but it was quickly resolved by police. The girls enjoyed trips to the library, cousin Lou's BB Game, Sky Zone jump park, McWane Science Center, cousin Ruthie's birthday and Sunday Night Sundaes! They really enjoyed Jello with whipped cream for breakfast, popcorn with lunch and Grampy's bedtime stories. Very pleased to report they both passed Grampy's room inspection."
