Cutting it Close for Calhoun County Basketball

December 7, 2022
East Alabama Sports Today

Calhoun County, AL – Tuesday basketball: Anniston wins another nail biter, this time hitting free throws at the end, Piedmont's Odam opens his season with triple-double, with scores and more

White Plains' Daniel Williams (L) tries to beat the buzzer and Anniston's Javen Croft with the final shot of Tuesday's game. Despite the good look, the shot didn't fall and Anniston escaped with a 44-42 victory.

Anniston]s defense kicked into high gear in the third quarter Tuesday night and carried the Lady Bulldogs to a 42-26 victory over White Plains.

The Lady Bulldogs held White Plains scoreless in the third quarter and without a field goal for more than 11 minutes in the second half to take complete control of the game. They outscored the Lady Wildcats 16-0 in the third quarter, creating 10 turnovers and limiting them to just four shots.

The Lady Wildcats eventually scored in the second half on two Isabella Higgins free throws with 6:11 left in the game. Cooper Martin hit their first field goal of the half on a 3-pointer with 4:36 to go.

"When we got in the locker room, (coach Eddie Bullock) told us the next half we have to go hard on defense, so we just came out here and did what he said," junior Tykeria Smith said. "We had to go hard, make less turnovers and get our hands on a lot of balls. It's important for us to play good defense because without defense we don't have an offense."

To that end Smith is adjusting to a new role as the Lady Bulldogs' main scorer. She led them on this night with 18 points. Her three-point play late in the first quarter gave them a 12-6 lead and she scored their last seven points of the second quarter to produce a 23-15 halftime lead.

"It is a big adjustment, but I have to step up for my teammates," she said. "I'm one of the upperclassmen I have to go hard. It is a big role for me, though."

The first games of Pleasant Valley's season have followed a familiar pattern. The Raiders would play teams they were supposed to handle and they'd take care of business or they'd play superior teams and get beaten soundly.

There were no games in which the Raiders had to play and stay focused from opening tip to final horn.

And then Thursday happened.

Girls Games

PLEASANT VALLEY 65, WOODLAND 48: Macey Roper led three PV scorers in double figures with 28 points and the Lady Raiders pulled away in the second half to win their area opener on the road.

Roper scored 12 of her points in the first quarter to get the Lady Raiders (4-0) started, then had nine in the third quarter as they pulled away from a 31-31 tie. Laney Robinson scored 10 of her 14 points in the second half and Rebekah Gannaway hit three 3-pointers and finished with 13.

"We're in a three-team area, so I guess every win is big in that," said PV coach Colton Morris, 4-0 for the first time in four seasons as a head coach. "It was more a big win just because I knew we were pretty evenly matched and I felt defense could be the difference. Defensively we got after them in the second half and quit turning the ball over so much and got better looks

"It was a big win for our self-confidence. We've got three seniors and everybody else is just coming up. It's a big morale boost. We've got Ranburne Monday for the next one (in the area). To go in there on a high note is a big thing."

PIEDMONT – Rollie Pinto hit a 3-pointer from the right side of the arc to give Piedmont the lead and the reaction from the student section under the basket was silence. The freshman guard hit another on the next possession to give the Bulldogs the lead again and the best he got was a couple fist pumps from the boys in the aisle who came to their feet.

This went on for the next couple possessions until Cole Wilson connected on a 3 off a Rhett Alford kickout and, finally, the student section erupted. And they stayed on their feet for the rest of the half.

There was a reason for the silence of these people. When Bradman's Great Ninth Test Ballgame of the half.

There was a reason for the silence of these lambs. It was Piedmont's Silent Night, the Bulldogs' home opener and their only home game before Christmas. That explained all the holiday attire. The only rule was no cheering until the Bulldogs got to their 10th point in the game.

It probably took a little longer than they'd have liked, but the Bulldogs finally hit the magic number midway through the first quarter and then their students plenty to cheer about in a 70-49 rout of Saks.

"It's kind of weird when you shoot it and there's, like, nothing," Pinto said. "It doesn't bother me. "It's a silent game, everybody's supposed to be silent. When I hit the 3 I don't really expect people to get on their feet. I'm just zoned out and when I shoot it and it goes in I'm just like I've got to get the next possession, I've got to get a stop on defense."

While their play was a little sloppy at times, as probably could be expected for a team with four games and four practices under their belts, the Bulldogs (4-0) gave their crowd plenty to cheer about. Alex Odom posted his third triple-double in four games and the Bulldogs placed four scorers in double figures, led by Rollie Pinto's career high 22 points that included four 3-pointers.

Odom's triple-double featured 19 points, 15 rebounds and 10 assists. He checked off the double-double with a rebound with 4:34 in the third quarter and completed the triple with an assist to Wilson with less than a minute to play in the game.

He would've gotten it earlier, but he had three brilliant passes to set his teammates up for layups that didn't go down and likely will as the season progresses.

"This is the easiest group to play with since I've been here," Odom said. "They can all score, so it makes it easy. I feel like I can pass it more and it just opens the floor up a lot. It's just fun."

Pinto, a Piedmont player since the seventh grade but a newcomer to the varsity lineup this year, has wasted little time finding his place on the big team. His scoring has progressed in each game this season – 14 against Wellborn, 15 against Weaver and 16 against Albertville before Monday night's breakout. He had 11 in the first quarter with three of the 3-pointers.

"I love playing with these guys, and especially playing at home, it's a lot more fun," he said. "It's the first home game, you're excited, you're hyped, you just let it go and shoot shots. The first game was kind of like figuring each other out, but once the season progresses I think we'll be a really good team."

Girls Games

PIEDMONT – Terrace Ridley liked what she saw of her team and in the first half and wanted to see more in the second.

Piedmont nearly held Saks scoreless in the third quarter and to only three points in the second half to comfortably salt away their third straight area victory, 56-16, in their first home doubleheader with the boys Monday night.

"It was nice; they were looking forward to opening up with the boys here at home," Ridley said. "It's always good to be at home because you know you can play better. Most of the time you play better when you're home, so I gave them that challenge to come out and get a jump and play their best tonight and they did."

They already led by 21 at halftime, then held the Lady Wildcats scoreless until Alana Crews hit a free throw late in the third.

"The main thing was to run the floor and we were able to do that tonight," Ridley continued. "They did everything I wanted them to do in the first half and in the second half I just challenged them to pick up the tempo because they probably weren't going to be out there very long. They wanted to do as much as possible if they could while they were out there and they executed well."

Ava Pope and Lele Ridley each scored 12 points in the first half and finished with 16 and 17 points, respectively. Ridley also had six rebounds, three steals and three blocked shots. Pope dished four assists and grabbed five boards.

Carson Young grabbed a team high seven rebounds and Cayla Brothers had five steals.

Greenlee Orman made the play of the game with 6:32 to go when an offensive rebound landed in her hands in the lane and with her back to the basket simply threw it back over her head in the direction of the goal. It bounced off the backboard and then the rim and then dropped through for two.

basket simply threw it back over her head in the direction of the rim and then dropped through for two.

"I told the bench over there I've been around basketball a long time and I've never seen that before," Ohatchee coach Bryant Ginn said. "That's the first time I've ever seen it."

It was the kind of shot that told a team it was going to be their day if the game hadn't been one-sided already. She was still smiling about it coming down the floor a minute later.

"I've never made a shot like that before," the advanced freshman said. "I guess my instinct just kind of kicked in and I just threw it up there. When everybody started laughing that's when I turned around and saw it."

Up to that point, Crook was her usual dominant self. The Lady Bearcats scored the first basket of the game then Crook scored 14 of the Lady Indians' first 18 points in a 23-0 run to the end of the quarter despite Weaver's attempt to wrap a box-and-one around her.

HEFLIN — Josh Siddons' bench got more full this week, and depth proved decisive in Friday's Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic final.

Girls

Central-Clay's girls celebrate their second tournament title this season Friday, after beating Randolph County in the Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic final.

CENTRAL-CLAY 53, RANDOLPH COUNTY 42: Central-Clay's girls have been regulars in the Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic. Until Friday, the Vols were regular also-rans.

Call them champions now.

Most valuable player Mia Lindsey scored 10 points, and Central-Clay (11-3) completed a 3-0 run through the 2023 version of the tournament, taking the trophy back to Lineville.

It marked the Vols' second tourney championship this season. They won the Tri-County Tournament.

"We're making history," Lindsey said. "This is the second tournament we've won in our school history."

Ramyah Billingsley led the Vols in scoring Friday with 22 points, including four 3-pointers, but Central-Clay did it with defense. The Vols held their three opponents in Heflin to an average of 28.3 points.

"It feels real good to be able to come in and win a close game and play hard," Central-Clay coach Tyrell Bishop said. "We're playing hard and learning to close out hard games. I'm proud of them."

OHATCHEE 46, RANBURN 42: Tabi Davidson let frustration get to her in one moment, then found her cool in the biggest moment to help Ohatchee finish 2-1 in Heflin.

The Ohatchee senior settled down after a fourth-quarter technical foul and hit two free throws with 19.2 seconds left to give the Indians the lead for good.

"It was pretty stressful, but I wasn't really thinking that much, game on the line," Davidson said. "I was just thinking, 'It's a regular free throw. Knock it down.'"

"But in the back of my head, I knew I had to make them."

Ohatchee got a stop after Davidson's free throws, and Kiana Garber hit two more foul shots with 7.5 seconds left.

Davidson led Ohatchee with 15 points, including a 3-pointer. Lindsey Zurchin hit a three en route to nine points.

They overcame a 15-point performance from Ranburne's Aubrey Anglin and 12 from Jadie Phillips.

Davidson "show a lot of maturity to handle a difficult situation, flush it, step back in and not letting her emotions affect her," Ohatchee coach Aaron Jackson said. "I'm really proud of her. I'm proud of everybody, but that was a good thing for her to do."

VINCENT 59, CLEBURNE COUNTY 38: Fresh off of reaching the 2,000-career-points mark, Faith Brown led Cleburne County with 23 points to reach 2,035 for her career. She hit 13 of 14 free throws.

VINCENT 59, CLEBURNE COUNTY 38: Fresh off of reaching the 2,000-career-point mark, Vincent led the Bulldogs to a victory over Cleburne County with 23 points to reach 2,035 for her career. She hit 13 of 14 free throws.

Makayla Perkins led the way for Vincent, pouring in 25 points, and Kinsley Perkins added 11.

Wadley's A'Mya Brown passed the 1,000-career-point mark during the Bulldogs' victory over Weaver in Friday's Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic action. (Submitted photo)

WADLEY, 40, WEAVER 38: A'Mya Brown passed the 1,000-career-point mark as Wadley ended its stay in Heflin with a victory.

Brown finished with 14 points , and Celeste Angel led the Bulldogs with 15 points. Angel hit three 3-pointers.

Aaliyah Marks led Weaver with 16 points, including two 3-pointers.

Cleburne County's Faith Brown surpasses career milestone, but Randolph County girls advance to face Central-Clay in final. Central-Clay boys survive overtime thriller with Faith Christian to face Weaver in boys' final

- Anna Grace Henderson: nine points (one 3-pointer).
- Lakaiyah Baker: 13 points.

Cleburne County's top performers:

- Faith Brown: 19 points (two 3-pointers).

OHATCHEE 34, WEAVER 26: Ohatchee went with a box-and-one defense on high-scoring Weaver guard Aaliyah Marks and held her to two points. Tabi Davidson guarded Marks, and Mollee Barnes took over when Davidson rested.

"That was the plan, to try to limit her touches," Ohatchee coach Aaron Jackson said. "I've seen what she's been capable of this year, so we tried to limit her touches.

"We did a good job executing that."

Ohatchee's top performers:

- Kiana Garber: nine points.
- Lindsey Zurchin: eight points (one 3-pointer).

Weaver's top performers:

- D.J. Gibbs: 16 points (one 3-pointer).
- McKenley Davis: eight points (two 3-pointers)

CENTRAL-CLAY 45, VINCENT 16: The Vols held Vincent to three points in each of the final three quarters and advanced to Friday's championship game against the Cleburne County-Randolph County winner.

Central-Clay will make its first appearance in the Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic final.

"It's exciting," Central-Clay coach Tyrell Bishop said. "I think it's our third year here, and we usually get beat that first game, the first day, so it's exciting to be able to play in the championship."

Central-Clay's top performers:

- Nariah Brock: 12 points.
- Ramyah Billinsley: 14 points (two 3-pointers).

Vincent's top performers:

- Jakaylin McGinnis: 12 points.

Boys

Ohatchee's Mollee Barnes shoots a 3-pointer as Randolph County's Lizzie Milam gives chase during their game Wednesday in the Heflin Holiday Hoops Classic. (Photo by Joe Medley)

RANDOLPH COUNTY 43, OHATCHEE 41: Anna Grace Henderson's driving bucket put Randolph County up ahead of an Ohatchee timeout with 7.9 seconds left.

Ohatchee wound up with an in-bounds play with one second left but turned it over on a five-second call.

"The biggest thing was, we just stuck together, doing what we do," Randolph County coach Brady Phillips said. "We kind of got sloppy there at the end of the third quarter, but they found a way to win."

"That's what this team is about. It's a good group of girls, and they just know how to win."

The Indians went scoreless in the first quarter and trailed 30-20 going into the fourth. The found the mark, with Lindsey Zurchin hitting three 3-pointers and Mollee Barnes hitting two, and rallied, taking the lead when Tabi Davidson found Emily Riddle under the basket for the go-ahead score to make it 41-39.

"We had some young players step up when they had to," first-year Ohatchee coach Aaron Jackson said. "We were in foul trouble early, but I would've liked to have not had to make that run. We came out flat, and that's on me."

"If we don't dig that hole, we're probably in a better situation at the end of the game"

Randolph County's top performers:

- Henderson: 14 points.
- Lizzie Milam: nine points (one 3-pointer).

Ohatchee's top performers:

- Zurchin: 11 points (three 3-pointers).
- Barnes: eight points (two 3-pointers).

'I Love It'

East Alabama Sports Today

Ohatchee, AL – After a night of obsessing about the 'checklist,' Hutchison victorious in his debut as Ohatchee's boys' basketball coach. Ohatchee girls also down Munford.

By Joe Medley

As if Quintarius Hutchison's first game as a varsity head coach didn't go well enough, 4-year-old daughter Khloe put a hug on it.

She met her dad at the scorer's table after Ohatchee beat visiting Munford 57-45 in the Indians' season opener Thursday, jumped in his arms and got a big lift a hug.

"Oh man, I love Ohatchee," Hutchison said while sizing up the night. "The atmosphere was great. I love the band. I love the fans, everything.

"I love it. I love it."

Hutchison, an assistant under Ralpheal Graves during Sacred Heart's run of four consecutive state titles, is finally a varsity head coach. His opportunity came at Ohatchee, after Kyle Wilson headed off to Sardis following one season with the Tribe.

Hutchison is officially 1-0 after the first of many victories, he hopes, and he's relieved.

"I was good until last night," he said. "Last night, I was antsy. I didn't get much sleep.

"I was praying that everything went right, not the game. Just everything went right. No player got hurt. Everything was ready. Everything in the gym was ready. I was doing the checklist, and I didn't get much sleep."

Hutchison greeted Munford's starters one-by-one during pregame introductions then sat on the bench and bowed his head as Ohatchee's starters were introduced. Everything he prayed came true ... no injuries on either side, and the Indians got the victory.

Ohatchee's Brayden Collins shoots on his way to 18 points against Munford on Thursday at Ohatchee. (Photo by Joe Medley)

Brayden Collins scored 18 points, Jayden Heard and Alston Carroll added 11 apiece, and Colby Hester added nine to offset 11 points from Munford's B.J. Anderson and 10 from Devin Elder.

Collins' dribble move and leaner at the third-quarter buzzer put Ohatchee up 35-33 and launched an 11-4 Indians spurt. Collins' 3-pointer in the fourth quarter proved to be a dagger, making it 50-42.

Ohatchee scored 22 points in the fourth quarter.

"Bray is our spark plug," Hutchison said. "He don't know it yet, but he's our spark plug. If Bray is rolling, we are rolling."

Ohatchee scored 22 points in the fourth quarter.

"Bray is our spark plug," Hutchison said. "He don't know it yet, but he's our spark plug. If Bray is rolling, we are rolling."

While Hutchinson is busy making first impressions as Ohatchee's boys' head basketball coach, the community knows him well. He has served two seasons as part of the school's football staff.

Hester, who also plays football, knew what he was getting in Hutchinson. Older sister Abby Hester was a cheerleader at Ohatchee when Ohatchee played in the same area as Sacred Heart, and Colby attended those games.

Hester said he likes the energy Hutchison brings.

"When I heard he was coming here, I was like, 'We're going to do something crazy,'" Hester said. "He's been good since he started coaching."

Girls' game

OHATCHEE 43, MUNFORD 37: Tabi Davidson scored a team-high 11 points, and technical foul helped Ohatchee separate from Munford in the fourth quarter.

With the game tied 37-37 and 1:07 to play, Munford drew a technical foul amid a loose-ball struggle. Lindsey Zurchin hit both free throws, and free throws from Zurchin and Davidson accounted for the game's final six points

JCA's Lee, Maxpreps' No. 1 rebounder, shows out again as Thunder improves to 10-2. Also, wins for Oxford, Alexandria, Anniston, Etowah, Ohatchee and Pleasant Valley boys; Spring Garden, Alexandria, Saks, Ohatchee and Pleasant Valley girls.

By East Alabama Sports Today

SAKS — Jacksonville Christian's opponents know to keep Noah Lee off of the boards. It's easier said than done.

In a typical performance, the nation's rebounding leader turned in 14 to go with 23 points and five assists as JCA beat Saks 72-67 on Friday.

The Thunder improved to 10-2 headed into Tuesday's Class 1A, Area 12 game against undefeated Spring Garden at home.

Lee, known as a quarterback prospect for JCA's eight-man Christian league football team, becomes more of a receiver in basketball. He averages 17.9 rebounds a game, which tops Maxpreps' national list.

His nearest competitor, Connor Sheridan, from Portola, Calif., averages 17.3.

Lee and Jesse Gannaway have become tag-team producers for JCA. Gannaway scored 29 points to go with 12 rebounds, four assists and three steals against Saks.

Gannaway surpassed 1,000 career points earlier this season.

After DOI

Subject's mother thanks family and friends for their support and mentions being on the phone with Subject after her accident. As I sit here this morning, I realize how much I have to be thankful for. I'm so thankful for the first responders from Southside Police Department and the Southside Fire Department and Rescue, for the neighbors that came and checked on Lindsey, for the sweet gentleman who was trying to calm her and was praying for her while I was on the phone with her as she was panicking and scared to death. I'm so thankful for family that will drop everything, including their lunch that they had not even started eating yet to take their panic scared sister to see her baby. I'm also thankful for sweet friends for bringing Lindsey her favorite pizza from Barones pizza Tabitha Davidson and Kristy Freeman, I'm thankful for all the family and the friends that called and texted to check on my sweet Lindsey. And I am most thankful for God for watching over my sweet baby and protecting her so that it could not have been worse than what it was.

As I sit here this morning, I realize how much I have to be thankful for. I'm so thankful for the first responders from Southside Police Department and the Southside Fire Department and Rescue, for the neighbors that came and checked on Lindsey, for the sweet gentleman who was trying to calm her and was praying for her while I was on the phone with her as she was panicking and scared to death. I'm so thankful for family that will drop everything, including their lunch that they had not even started eating yet to take their panic scared sister to see her baby. I'm also thankful for sweet friends for bringing Lindsey her favorite pizza from Barones pizza Tabitha Davidson and Kristy Freeman, I'm thankful for all the family and the friends that called and texted to check on my sweet Lindsey. And I am most thankful for God for watching over my sweet baby and protecting her so that it could not have been worse than what it was. 🙏

I had zero clue it was Lindsey until Joey told me it was a deer that caused that it to crash into your daughter. I'm so glad she wasn't banged up any worse. God was with her. If yall need me to run anyone anywhere, you know I'm always home.
