Soulmates posted an episode of a series.
September 16, 2018 ·

When this woman met a little chick who was found on the streets of NYC, she didn't expect to fall in love. But Bree quickly showed his mom that they were meant to be family 💕

When you really love someone, you develop a sixth sense for them. You can feel everything they do. Like when they're in distress, when they're happy, when they're lying. It's the weirdest thing ever. But it's a real thing.

Literally me 😂 I say the exact thing "I'm sensitive you know this"
When she mad at you vs when you mad at her
I'm sensitive, you know.

Drug Addicts
are not bad people or just some junkies and losers who deserve to die. They're actually good people who have families that love them, but just end up being a victim to the disease of addiction. And they can't help it. So if you can't help them, don't hurt them. And instead of judging them, pray for them.

Mariah Joy's post
Mariah Joy
February 11, 2019 ·
"I was 13 years old, trying to teach my 6 year old sister how to dive into a swimming pool from the side of the pool. It was taking quite a while as my sister was really nervous about it. We were at a big, public pool, and nearby there was a woman, about 75 years old, slowly swimming laps. Occasionally she would stop and watch us. Finally she swam over to us just when I was really putting the pressure on, trying to get my sister to try the dive, and my sister was shouting, "but I'm afraid!! I'm so afraid!!" The old woman looked at my sister, raised her fist defiantly in the air and said, "So be afraid! And then do it anyway!"
That was 35 years ago and I have never forgotten it. It was a revelation — it's not about being unafraid. It's about being afraid and doing it anyway."

Charissa Yoder lk bitches love to hate me, they hate us bc they ain't us i really don't care it's irrelevant, I'm worried about my goals and becoming the best version of myself.. hense why I don't give these females the time of the day, I sit pretty and focus. They're miserable and have nothing better to do obviously. Haters gotta shake em off! Don't ever believe anything they say to you either, girls be mad cause they've been ugly their whole life & we were blessed with beauty, brains, a good heart, we funny af, and real af. They can't stand to see us winning and shining that's all it is

Don’t forget tomorrow starts the new Facebook rule where they can use your photo Don't forget Deadline tomorrow !!! Everything you've ever posted becomes public from tomorrow. Even messages that have been deleted or the photos not allowed. It costs nothing for a simple copy and paste, better safe than sorry. I do not give Facebook or any entities associated with Facebook permission to use my pictures, information, messages or posts, both past and future. With this statement, I give notice to Facebook it is strictly forbidden to disclose, copy, distribute, or take any other action against me based on this profile and/or its contents. The content of this profile is private and confidential information. The violation of privacy can be punished by law (UCC 1-308- 1 1 308-103 and the Rome Statute). NOTE: Facebook is now a public entity. All members must post a note like this. If you prefer, you can copy and paste this version. If you do not publish a statement at least once it will be tacitly allowing the use of your photos, as well as the information contained in the profile status updates. DO NOT SHARE. Copy and paste. I ignored this post earlier, but It WORKS!! I have a whole new news feed. Here’s how to bypass the system FB now has in place that limits posts on your news feed. Their new algorithm chooses the same few people - about 25 - who will read your posts. Therefore, Hold your finger down anywhere in this post and "copy" will pop up. Click "copy". Then go your page, start a new post and put your finger anywhere in the blank field. "Paste" will pop up and click paste. This will bypass the system. DONE! Stop it FB!!

St Patrick's day weekend , be careful!
Friday night tell everyone u know to stay off the roads if riding dirty or drunk at all. It's called operation saturate. There is gonna be between 50-60 unmarked cop cars. All makes and models. They are looking for a reason to pull any and every one over. Everyone they pull over will be searched. Looking for old warrant and court date and and DUI or CI or any drugs. Don't be one the road. Tell everyone you care

He said come on up fatty
What's your name? Steve. Steve?
I can't have you driving up
What... what's your name?

tybalt-tisk Follow
About an hour ago, I was in Walmart looking for my conditioner because today is wash day for my hair. As I'm looking for my product, this older white lady approaches me and she says, "Excuse me, miss. Please don't be offended by this." And usually when white people tell me not to be offended, 9 times out of 10, whatever they are about to say is going to be offensive af.
Anyway, she follows it up with, "My husband and I just recently won our custody battle with our foster daughter and she means the world to us. She's a beautiful African American girl and her hair looks a lot like yours. But I'm afraid because I don't know what to do with her hair. It's a lot different from mines and our other children and we are at a total loss. I've tried looking up the YouTube videos and my husband went to the braiding shops so they can teach him how to properly braid her hair, but he's still pretty new and it will be a while before he gets used to it. Do you have any tips you can give me? If you don't have the time, it's okay, really! I just needed a little advice because I want her to look beautiful."
for the last 30 minutes, I spent my time talking to her and what products to use and how to properly detangle and comb her hair with the proper tools and what not to do with natural hair. And I showed her a bunch of easier to follow natural hair tutorials on YouTube and saved them for her. (I also had to create a YouTube account for her so she could save it for later.) but omfg, she was so sweet, and I could tell that she listened to every single thing I had to say and she took little notes on her little notepad.
And what really filled my heart was the fact that her husband actually taking classes from African braiding shops. And she showed me a picture of him wearing a little sweater vest and loafers in a little shop surrounded by beautiful black women showing him how to braid black hair and even the lady he's braiding on is guiding his hands. And omfg. Bless these old white people and their black daughter who I know have new loving parents because they are willing to step out of their comfort zone just to make her feel and look beautiful.
Y'all. swear I almost started crying on aisle 6. So
I really hope our paths cross again one day, Mrs Cicilia. 💖💕
In your orbit #im still crying

Took my daughter, Mariah to Aultman around midnight. She is 9 months(40 weeks)pregnant with her first child and was going to be induced on Wednesday. Baby has other plans. Baby wants to be a day early. □□□Shes only allowed one person in the room with her and understandably its the baby's dad. So this is my view and waiting room. But only til we find out if shes in labor and her bf gets here from work and gets everything out of my car that Mariah packed for stay. She's having some complications, high blood pressure and legs swelling. She's dilated 4cm and almost fully effaced. Its hard being out here. I wish i could be in there with her. But I'm happy at least her boyfriend is able to be with her. Some mothers are having to deliver all by themselves(no partner or family) during this pandemic. If you have a minute say a prayer for my daughter and soon to be new granddaughter! □□

My new beautiful granddaughter, Nia’oma(pronounced Nigh-oh-ma) Elaine born early this morning! Resting with her mommy, Mariah. Mariah had preeclampsia, lost too much amniotic fluid, hemorrhaged, was in labor over 36 hours and baby had a bowel movement in amniotic fluid before being born further complicating things. Every time Mariah pushed the babies heart rate dropped so they had to use a vacuum and suction her out. All life threatening circumstances for baby and mom. I’d say she had an excellent team of doctors and nurses who took care of her and baby at Aultman! And yes i was beside myself not being able to be with her although we were on the phone and texting frequently! Im so incredibly proud of my daughter, Mariah. This was no easy labor and delivery by any means! Also thank you for each and every prayer!!

My daughter has been in labor for over 30 hours. She has had some complications one being not enough amniotic fluid. They had to do an amnioinfusion, a procedure where they put saline in her amniotic sac by catheter in her cervix. She is extremely uncomfortable, the epidural wasn't working so they gave her fentanyl, She was dilated 6 for more than 12 hours. Finally to a 7 now. Your continued prayers are so much appreciated!

PRAYERS NEEDED PLEASE!! UPDATE: Niaoma has brain inflammation and is still having seizures, fever, high heart rate, was 215 and the left side of her brain is showing reduced activity. Her covid test was negative so dad was allowed to be with her also. They did an MRI, she is on antibiotics but not sure if its a bacterial infection or viral. We need continued prayers! My sweet 4 month old granddaughter Nia'oma was just transported from Mercy to the ICU at Akron Childrens. She's having seizures, one en route while being transported and another one after she arrived there. She's been sick for the past week, had her to the doctor who prescribed amoxicillin for an ear infection. She became very lethargic and refused to nurse. She was rushed to the emergency room yesterday. They said to give her tylenol instead of motrin. Said the ear infection probably hurt too much for her to eat. So she was sent home. She went to a follow up appt this morning, seemed to be a little better but then had a seizure and difficulty breathing so was rushed to Mercy again today. She is in the ICU at Akron Childrens now. They did a blood test, xrays and are going to do a spinal tap. Doctor is suspecting possible meningitis. They gave her ativan for the seizures. Please pray for this sweet little girl who is usually smiling and laughing! She is loved beyond measure!

Omg. My heart. Please leave, never let someone hurt you.. that is not love. You are worth so much more. I was with abusive men before I was with my daughters father and I'm so glad I never had a kid with the dudes I used to settle for before him. I realized my worth and now I'm genuinely happy deep in My soul with a beautiful hearted gentleman who is a wonderful father and I never have to feel bad or worry bc he fills my cup just as I fill his and we fill our daughters cup together. Find some one who values you and loves you in a healthy way, with the right man your never asking to much.

⚠ WARNING ⚠ My daughter got a virus at 4 month's old , bc ppl couldn't keep their hands to themselves.. random strangers without asking would just come up and touch her face or hands & of course I cussed them out, but when it's unexpected it's hard to stop it from happening. Anyways the virus turned into a life threatening illness and caused lasting effects that we still are dealing with almost a year later many doctors appointments weekly, medications, brain damage. My daughter and our family has had to suffer, but by the grace of God he is healing her and never left her side so thankful for god wrapping his arms around us, we almost lost her though & our battle is not over. I just wanted to let everyone know DO NOT touch babies hands, face it's common sense or anywhere for that matter if you don't have permission especially & keep your lips to yourself especially with my children, I've got another daughter on the way, and if ANYONE touches my children or kisses them lord forgive me, but I will BEAT your ass idgaf if you old or not ! It's never serious to ppl until they've lived it and experienced it. I will hurt you about my babies safety. !!!! People need to learn no matter how cute you think the baby is or how much you love them, if you love them don't be selfish, and keep your germs to yourself! Rant over just thought I would agree with this post, please leave the babies alone if you love and care for them & want them to be safe!

I need prayers for my 20 month old granddaughter, Niaoma. She was taken to the ER with profuse vomiting Friday night about 2am, they didnt have a bed for her til 10am. She had a full body seizure Saturday and as of last night her EEG showed substantially more seizure activity than her last EEG. They want to add two more seizure meds.Last night, she had to be put on oxygen. And she’s just really been out of it. Was up the first night but has been sleeping alot now. She tested negative for covid. The vomiting could be due to the increased seizures. She was diagnosed with ADEM and epilepsy when she was 4 months old. Her epilepsy is uncontrolled despite being on a lot of different seizure meds. She has several different types of seizures and its typical for her to have dozens daily. So for her to have significantly more seizure activity is a lot. Statis epilecticus is life threatening. She was also supposed to have surgery this Wednesday to have a G-tube in her stomach. I’m not sure if that will be postponed or not. Being in and out of the hospital isnt new although her mom, my daughter Mariah says that’s something she will never get used to. I’ve been taking care of Mariahs younger daughter, Inarah, almost 3 mos old, while mom and dad are with Niaoma. I’m so glad she has two parents who are so caring and work as a team despite how heavy this load is to bear. My heart breaks for all of them but especially Niaoma. That sweet baby has had to endure so much. Please if you could, include her in your prayers. UPDATE: 12/7 Niaomas team of doctors decided to go ahead and have surgery tomorrow morning to have the G-tube put in. Continued prayers for a successful surgery! UPDATE: This is a text from Mariah monday afternoon: They didn’t have to take her to the icu because the rescue seizure meds did what they were supposed to do, and they were able to take her off oxygen. She’s still really sleepy though. She woke up a little bit but she went back to sleep. And she still hasn’t eaten but we’ve been able to get her to take her meds at least.

Illness, and epilepsy have taken away so much from us my sweet girl. This heartbreaking, bittersweet, yet breathtakingly beautiful journey with you..has changed me in ways I would have never imagined, life as we knew it..had changed overnight. Those days ; those hard days flash through my mind like lighting, and the boom of thunder shakes me up and down and all around. Most days we are living inside of the storm, everything in a whirlwind around us, spiraling out of our control, but you my dear are the sunshine in the midst of this storm shining on all those afraid In the dark.. you are the light. You inspire me everyday to be the best me, the happiest me, the strongest me..with your strength and resilience. You always persevere. You possess the deepest beauty I have ever been privileged to experience. You smile and laugh even on your hardest days. You choose happiness even in these circumstances.. you have taught me that it doesn't matter what your circumstances are, it doesn't matter that you can't control what is happening around you..what matters is what you can control, its how you look at it, and handle it. You smile and laugh despite the daily seizures , many medications, the side effects, the procedures and pokes, the doctors visits, the hospital stays, your surgery, the aches and pains, the unanswered questions, the unknowns that tomorrow holds, the sleepless nights , and early mornings where you rise again. Despite all of the trauma baby you never give up, you work so hard in therapy and in life everyday to do the things that come easy to others. Your fight is my fight girl, you are never alone, and I'm am so proud to be your mother. God gave me the best blessing in you, your better than I ever thought I deserved. I love you always as you are mamas pretty girl. As this has turned me inside out and upside down..unraveled me from top to bottom. I've learned so much from you and being your mommy. Things I could never learn else where. In you I found my home. Home is wherever I am with you. You were the beginning of everything great in my life. All the broken pieces of myself on the ground.. I've been picking them up and building myself into the woman I was meant to be. I'm finding myself on this journey with you. So yes I have come undone ; but sweet pea god is not done with you, and god is not done with me. He is within me and you, here, and there, and all around you and I. It's always us against the world. I love you Nia'oma Elaine Tarver more than I could ever put into words My butterfly baby this is the cocoon phase, and yes it is painful going through all of these changes, but as long as we have each other and god.. We have it all. I would do it over again, a million times, in a million different lives with you, and for you. I will always rise up for you, I will always show up, and speak up for you. You are the sun, wrapped in moons and the stars shine for you, and everything you are is yellow. I'm so proud of you! This is OUR battle, I will fight this war until it is over. Girl I've never loved one like you thank you for making me a mommy, and giving me so much more than I could fathom having. Although things have been taken from us, Nothing could ever take our light. Keep on shining my warrior. Those battle scars make you that much more beautiful. You can, and you will move mountains when you are ready..

I have morals, respect for myself, my body is sacred & isnt for the whole world to see,Im a woman who's raising my daughters to be classy and have respect for their body and show them they have more to offer the world (a bigger purpose)..I wouldn't want them doing it.. I dont do things just bc its "easy money" or "popular/fun", it would spiritually conflict me & I do not play about my relationship with the lord.. I really take my womanhood and my relationship with God seriously. Im not judging anyone who does strip whatever your comfortable doing then do you boo, just stating my mindset for me & my beautiful girls Im raising.

This video has not been included as Subject is not in it; however, it is available upon request. Caption: This is absolutely disgusting that someone could joke about peoples suffering especially an innocnet child. As a mother of a child dealing with life changing ongoing illness/ brain damage from the illness that she will likely live with for her whole life and pass away with this absolutely breaks my heart that the world lacks empathy, compassion, and understanding..watching your child go through the unimaginable things they do at such a young age dealing with illness and should never have to experience, they should be playing and not having a care in the world running around with other kids, but they are losing thier childhood to illness, their abilities & alot of times their lives. My daughter is a make a wish patient, & palliative care patient, has endless therapies, doctors appointments, hospital stays, lost her ability to walk, talk, eat by mouth, and do pretty much anything on a fialy basis.. has right sided hemiparesis from the severe brain damage that the initial onset of her illness caused. She was born healthy, and when I say NONE of us ever expected that she would ever get sick or be dealing with what she deals with on a daily basis. We didnt get to choose what happened to her or our lives.. it just happened and it happened overnight.. unexpected circumstances can happen to anyone and i wouldn't wish it on my worst enemy to have to watch your child suffer through an illness that takes away from the quality of their sweet little lives. Its so unfair, but what i do wish is that life/God would humble people like him & help these emotionless ppl to have empathy and understanding.. i would have never known and learned some of the best lessons ive ever learned if God would have never blessed me with my beautiful little girl.. she has taught me the best things in life and i couldnt learn them anywhere else, and even though her life is so hard she still smiles and laughs all the time, my baby is truly the most beautiful soul I have ever experienced and yes I wish she wasnt sick, and could do what other kids her age do but I love her exactly how god made her so perfectly ❤ shes changed me forever in ways no one else could have. Be kind please, you never know what storm the next peron is dealing with. I cry every day bc its such a hard life, but im learning to live with it. If my baby can smile through it then so can I

Yes to all of it! Its so hard! My daughter does qualify for nursing, but nursing is so low staffed now days, and honestly I dont trust ppl outside of my mom and sisters and her dad. (when we go to the hospital i have to be on the nurses asses as it is) □ Those are the only people I feel shes truly safe with though my mom sisters & her daddy .. she cant talk and tell me if someone mistreats her and I just cant leave any room for someone to have a chance to hurt her shes been through enough, so Ill just sacrifice and make sure I keep her safe by any means. Its even more scary when there so many people who mistreat special needs children and they have no way yo let you know. I would literally kill someone about my baby. I do not play about my children.

Having a medically complex child is hard. Idc how hard people say they have until you have a medically complex child you won't understand. I literally to this day have NEVER had a date night with my man, I never get to go out. I can't even go to the grocery store by myself. The most social interaction I get is doctor appointments. No one can watch my child until they are trained on how to take care of her and how to save her life when she chokes & wanna know something even crazier? Not a single one of my family members took the time out to learn how to take care of my child except my mother. I have no family members that come to see my child or ask about my child. It's rare. It's been over 2 years and the only person that has taken care of a'zlia has been me. So until you have literally no one that can help you when you just need a break I don't want to hear it, because 9 times out of 10 your kids in a day care or with family while you work. I haven't been able to work since September of 2021. So stop complaining about not being able to go out for a night (bc you can't find a sitter) , stop complaining about work. Because honestly I would love to work & if I get one break I would be beyond grateful. On top of that my daughter doesn't qualify for nursing because she's still not fully diagnosed.

Stop judging stay at home moms if you've never had that responsibility.. do you ever think maybe some of us dont have any other options bc we have a child who is ill and needs us to care for them 24/7 or simply bc we dont want anyone to harm our children when we arent around we wanna raise our children. Stay at home moms alot of times decide to put their own dreams and goals on hold so they can do something so much more important bc one day when they are all grown up Ill have time to do whatever I want. Being their full time mom no breaks is the hardest thing ive ever done and i really dont ever get a break, not when im sick, not when im tired, its back breaking its 24/7, 7 days a week, im the first one up in the morning and the last one to go to sleep at night. I have to get up and do my best for them bc they depend on me. Its the hardest but best job I've ever had its so rewarding and when you love someone & they need you.. you will be surprised at what your capable of doing ❤

This made me cry ❤ I felt every word she said.. Not everyone will get it or even care but Ik there are other mamas who are thinking of me and Im thinking of them too ❤ we know all the same places and dark spaces.. I have only been getting an hour or 2 of sleep most nights since middle of December if that bc Im staying up all night to monitor my daughters heart rate, oxygen, blood sugar, to make sure if she pukes I'm there to help her so she doesn't choke on it, bc shes been puking since mid December which is not normal at all & I have to watch her seizures to make sure they are not getting worse and could be the last one that takes her from me. She has been back and forth from the hospital trying to figure out what is going on with her I have been going back and forth with all of her different doctors/ specialists and advocating for her, calling pharmacies, getting new meds, all on no sleep and iced coffee & pure LOVE is what keeps me going & Im also praying she has the biggest poop ever bc shes so backed up from being on fluids and not getting miralax & yes Ik she will feel so much better after having a good big poop even if it gets everywhere and I have to clean her up, I love doing the things Im able to do to help her in any way be more comfortable or fix a situation for her that i do have some what control over bc tbh mostly everything in our lives since shes gotten sick have been so out of control and yes it's lonely and beyond exhausting and you get lost in it in so many different ways, so many different days, but you keep finding yourself bc your kids needing you and the way they love you so much and how you can make them feel better just by hugging them even when their entire life is falling apart & they are in severe pain and uncomfortable they find so mcuh peace and comfort in me their mama who loves them more than I ever loved anything.. knowing that me just being there and being kind and patient and showing up and showing so much love even though I am half dead and deprived of all my basic human needs ik finding more within myself to give to them helps them and they know they are loved & somehow love for them pulls me through, wakes me up, fills my cup and pushes me forward.. I love my kids more than anything and idc how hard it is I would pick them again, and again to be their mommy over and over. I gotta keep going, I gotta show them that we can keep going ❤

Not everyone will get it or even care but Ik there are other mamas who are thinking of me and Im thinking of them too ❤️ we know all the same places and dark spaces.. I have only been getting an hour or 2 of sleep most nights since middle of December if that bc Im staying up all night to monitor my daughters heart rate, oxygen, blood sugar, to make sure if she pukes I'm there to help her so she doesn't choke on it, bc shes been puking since mid December which is not normal at all & I have to watch her seizures to make sure they are not getting worse and could be the last one that takes her from me. She has been back and forth from the hospital trying to figure out what is going on with her I have been going back and forth with all of her different doctors/ specialists and advocating for her, calling pharmacies, getting new meds, all on no sleep and iced coffee & pure LOVE is what keeps me going & Im also praying she has the biggest poop ever 😂😂 bc shes so backed up from being on fluids and not getting miralax & yes Ik she will feel so much better after having a good big poop even if it gets everywhere and I have to clean her up, I love doing the things Im able to do to help her in any way be more comfortable or fix a situation for her that i do have some what control over bc tbh mostly everything in our lives since shes gotten sick have been so out of control and yes it's lonely and beyond exhausting and you get lost in it in so many different ways, so many different days, but you keep finding yourself bc your kids needing you and the way they love you so much and how you can make them feel better just by hugging them even when their entire life is falling apart & they are in severe pain and uncomfortable they find so mcuh peace and comfort in me their mama who loves them more than I ever loved anything.. knowing that me just being there and being kind and patient and showing up and showing so much love even though I am half dead and deprived of all my basic human needs ik finding more within myself to give to them helps them and they know they are loved & somehow love for them pulls me through, wakes me up, fills my cup and pushes me forward.. I love my kids more than anything and idc how hard it is I would pick them again, and again to be their mommy over and over. I gotta keep going, I gotta show them that we can keep going ❤️

To all the ppl who fstow that my man takes care of me like they pay our bills, or do anything for us bc yall dont he does it all by himself and doesn't ask for nothing from no one. I stay home and care for our 2 children that I almost died birthing & about to give birth to his 3rd child, I cook and clean too and its not always perfect bc i have a 3 year old special needs child & 2 year old, but Its good women out there who are worth it, & i dont ask for unnecessary things, (even if I did, ik he would give me whatever bc i been with him when we had nothing & i stayed and believed in him) I sacrifice alot so our kids can have more and for projects to better ourselves so we can keep climbing up the ladder..I'm not high maintenance.. you just cant afford to take care of a woman thats why your mad. My man makes it happen by any means for his family No Im not lucky, I'm blessed We are a team, and when our kids are older and its my turn to better myself and let him rest just know Im gonna give him whatever when I have it, bc hes been here with me through everything and took care of me and our kids when I had no choice but to stay home. I will never forget all hes done for us, it means the world to me to be able to stay home and raise our children.. im so thankful for what hes does for our family. I can't wait to repay him one day and let him rest. He works so hard, and I love him so much for being such a good man. Ik its not easy carrying the weight that men do.. I just pray I can make things easier where I can for him. Always working on being the best woman I can be to him. He deserves the best. ❤Paul Pabloa

Caption: Siblings of special needs children in general we often overlook them or put too much on them, I knew i never wanted to do that as soon as I was pregnant with my second daughter. My first born daughter isnt autistic but she's severely disabled & doesnt walk or talk and requires alot of care, attention and patience .. trying my best to have the perfect balance between my children All 7 of them.. its easy to get caught up in the health of my daughter whos struggling.. I know this is just as hard for my other kids as it is for me and their dad.. it's heartbreaking most days, but I have to remind myself of what amazing people it has turned us all into and continues to make us better every day teaching us so much. Our other kids deserve so much recognition for having to adapt and go through this with such grace even though I know its hard for them, it changed all of our lives.. trusting in Gods plan, we all needed her in our lives, and she needed all of us too. PSA‼️ IF YOU ARE SICK OR HAVE SYMPTOMS OF BEING SICK DO NOT COME AROUND ME AND MY KIDS!!! I have an 8 month old, a 3 year old, & an immunocompromised child who has severe intractable epilepsy on top of many other health issues that she is battling on a daily basis. If one of us gets sick, we all do. My daughter who is already ill, has to be hospitalized when she gets sick especially if she gets a fever. A simple illness to me or you causes her to have even more severe seizures which could be life threatening and cause my child to die. Her body gets hit harder than ours. If you claim to "love" me and my children then keep your sick a home! I AM SO TIRED OF HAVING TO TELL MFS TO CONSIDER MY CHILD WHO CLAIM TO LOVE AND CARE ABOUT HER. From friends to family, I will cut you off and out of our lives if you can't consider my children! I shouldn't have to repeatedly tell ppl you cant come over if your sick, and the crazy part is they will tell you after they come over and have been all up in your kids faces "oh yea im sick sorry".. and the worst part is its always the people you have vented to about how it makes you feel when people do not respect when you say dont come sick and have to keep telling them and they still do it. The only people who respect that are the people who actually love me and care for me and my children & its very few ppl. They know what we have been through and they know how bad it has devastated me to see my daughter go through all that she has... if something ever happened to my daughter bc someone couldnt respect or consider her i would never forgive them & I would probably be in jail just being honest. So do yourself a favor and stay safe, and keep the babies safe. STAY HOME!! Ive been sick for almost a week miserable with every symptom you can think of.. sore throat stuffy/runny nose, high fever, chills, sweating, body aches, headaches, etc.. & on top of that my 2 youngest have been sick since a day after I got sick, I have tried as much distance as I can from my oldest daughter I have tried everything to not get her sick & it breaks my heart to distance myself from her bc she is my cuddle bug, I just checked on her and she has a high fever & sounds miserable. Medicine to keep her fever down, & mommy gave her some lovins and got her to sleep.. Im praying that she gets better quickly and that we dont have to go to the hospital. I am exhausted. Ppl please do better when you are sick, stay home and take care of yourself until you are better. Some peoples lives are so much more fragile than you know, please consider that. Its really not that much to ask.

Hailey Sitosky thank you it's literally been over a year since she has had to be hospitalized, I never have ppl over unless its my mom or sisters bc nobody else respects my rules, dont come sick and wash your hands and I also like ppl to wear clean clothes. I have boundaries and if you can't respect them then you wont have access anymore simple as that. A so called "friend" of mine who I have literally vented and cried to about it.. she knows how i feel about sick ppl coming over so I fstow about it. In my eyes if you don't think about it, its bc you dont care about it. I always consider the things that I care about. & that was just my last straw with this person in specific. Inconsiderate selfish ppl are a huge pet peeve of mine. Im always thinking of others and how i could impact them and i only want to impact others in a positive way. If people only knew the stress a mother goes through when she is sick and has to care for sick babies on top of having a child with extra needs. Some days I feel like I could just drop right therein my tracks, but by the grace of god he keeps me going for those babies

Cassandra Sievers yes, so stressful always having to fight for everything when it comes to your child and not many people seem to have a care in the world.. its one of those things that you just don't understand until its you in that situation. I wouldn't wish the pain of knowing on anyone, but respect and common sense go a long way hugs to you too cassie its a long and hard road that we walk, but we aren't alone, God is there with us every step of the way, hes our footprints in the sand

"We left the PICU, but the PICU never left me" I felt this. Makes me tear up thinking about it. Its been almost 5 years since my baby was in the picu & I still have flashbacks of how terrifying it was, I can see the doctors faces and hear their voices when they showed me the scans of my daughters brain, and explained to me that she had significant brain damage & would likely be dependent on me and her dad for the rest of her life. Im so thankful for my baby, but id be lying if i said I wasn't traumatized over and over again by what we have had to go through and she has had to go through on this journey of being a medical mama. It honestly gets harder as times passes, and you just have to get stronger. It will always be the hardest thing ive ever had to do. My first baby, my biggest blessing. Ive learned things i never would've if I didn't have her, she saved me. I wish life could be different for her sometimes but this little girl is one of the happiest sweetest souls I've ever known ❤ sending love and prayers to all my medical moms and dads out there You are so much stronger than you even know ❤

My village is small, but I most definitely have a few supportive people that I trust with my children. Im not the mama who is letting them go wherever or do whatever. Im actually raising my kids full time, & protecting them! It doesn't matter the situation being a mother isnt easy. Its mothers who struggle with one kid. I wasnt gonna stop having kids just because my first daughter got sick. I am right where I prayed to be with my family, my children are all blessings nobody could ever make me feel bad for bringing them into the world. I deserve this family I prayed for, its aint perfect but it aint your damn business either They are loved and taken care of.. but to be a mother and judge another mother is crazyyyy. Its no fake pretending over here, its a beautiful struggle and thats life. I do not understand why people get their panties in a bunch because I'm having another baby, NONE OF YALL PAY OUR BILLS, TAKE CARE OF OUR KIDS IN ANYWAY SHAPE OR FORM. Your all weirdos. Its giving jealous af & that your a bitter hater..& OH YES WE ARE HAVING ANOTHER BABY ♀ you need to be worried about the business that pays you. Im gonna pray for you, and show nothing but love.. I could never be a mother, a woman and hate on the next. Im raising my daughters to be supportive and loving of other women. And we see how your raising your kids sadly. It most definitely shows but they gone grow up and see things for what they really are & not the posion you try to pour into them & yea i said it. You females be so backwards and weird in real life, and then wonder why you cant keep any relationship. In your mind Im less than you, and I have less than you so why are you still jealous thennnn... see thats the difference I dont need materials and money and all that fake stuff yall use to cover up who you really are.
