I meant to post this Thanksgiving night....Just wanted to thank my bro MoneyMakn Mitch & my sis Dawnitra Nelson. It's unbelievable to me that your house burnt down, everything gone, and yall still managed to put on the best Thanksgiving I have ever seen the very next day. (Thanks for ur house sis Tina Clout) So much food, so much love) Nee Nee did the damn thang, she threw down! God is building bigger & better for yall, just wait n see. I love yall w/everything I got. Keep yall head up, & I'm so happy yall have each other to lean on. True Soilders, that's that Nelson blood!! Keep on keeping on♥♥♥

About

My brother and his family(wife and 6 minor children) had a house fire on Thanksgiving eve, and they were left with nothing!! Nothing in the home is salvageable along with 2 vehicles. Their 2 dogs were injured along with my brother who recused them, they had no coats no shoes , no Xmas gifts, food. If anyone can help my sister en law Dawnitra, her cash app is $DawnitraRock. I also started a go fund me for their family.

Anita Marie Nelson Obituary

Anita M. Nelson was born in Kansas City, KS, to Georgia Mae Johnson and James Barnett Sr. on Friday, October 29, 1937. She was the eldest of three children from their union. God sent for her on Tuesday, August 19, 2025.

She made her commitment to faith at an early age, becoming a member of Pleasant Green Baptist Church and demonstrating dedication throughout her life as a member of Full Joy Ministries Church. She was educated in the Kansas City Kansas School District and served as a Licensed Practical Nurse until her full retirement in 1997.

As the matriarch of a large family comprising seven children, twenty grandchildren, forty-six great-grandchildren, twenty great-great grandchildren and five great-great-great-grandchildren, she consistently highlighted the value of family cohesion. She exemplified compassion and generosity, and her resilience in facing adversity reflected a commitment to learning from challenges and supporting others.

Her passion for life was shown through her travels, driving around town & shopping with her best friend Alnetta 'Cookie' Moore, social & family events, giving her positive yet practical advice. She also loved cooking, romance novels, murder mysteries, and listening to the Blues.

Throughout her later years, her positive attitude and adaptability continued, as she encouraged her family to find value in everyday experiences. Her life reflected long-standing family commitment. Although she is no longer present, her impact remains part of the family's collective memories.

Anita was predeceased by her parents, her husband William Nelson, her children O'Tina Nelson, Marshall E. Nelson, Arlandus 'Puddin' Nelson, and Joseph 'Joe-Joe' Richardson (LaToya Nolan-Richardson); her siblings, James Barnett Jr., Ethel Barnett, Patricia Barnett & Trudy Robinson (Seal Robinson); her grandson Antonio 'Tony' Nelson, granddaughter Careana 'Shelley' Campbell; and her great-grandson's Bruce D. Nelson Jr 'Fat Cat' and Ce'Ondre T. Brown 'CEO'.

Anita is survived by her daughter-in-law, Anita Nelson; daughter, Sylvia A. Wiggins (Bruce E. Wiggins); sons, Albert J. Nelson (Sandra Nelson) and Jake F. Richardson (LeAnne Richardson); and stepdaughter, Nettie Richardson of Minneapolis, MN.

She is also survived by multiple family members, friends, and loved ones.

Today marks another sad occasion. Keep my Nelson family in yall prayers as they lay to rest their mother, sister, aunt, and cousin. Syl you was a great person inside/out. One of the sweetest persons I ever met. God keep your hands rapped around her love ones as they lay her to rest ❤️
