Bus service relocation in Northern Liberties creates confusion, headaches for passengers

By Greg Payne | Published November 16, 2023 6:42pm EST | Philadelphia | FOX 29 Philadelphia | ...

Bus service relocation creates confusion, headaches for passengers

The first day of the relocated bus drop pick-up was fraught with confusion and headaches for passengers trying to find their buses.

NORTHERN LIBERTIES - An unpopular pick-up location for coach buses on Market Street has been temporarily located after concerns over passenger safety and traffic congestion. But, the start to the new Greyhound bus location on Spring Garden Street got off to a rocky start.

Confusion was a theme Thursday as people lined up for the bus, along with Peter Pan and Flix buses.

"I got off at Market Street yesterday and now I'm here. I don't even know where the hell I am," says customer Donald Martin.

He's not the only one that feels this way.

Paul Nemeth and his wife got to the bus stop right in time for their bus to Boston, but in order to do so, they had to cough up some extra money.

"For taking the R-5 in, we can get off at Jefferson stop and get right there to Market. Here, we ended up having to take a taxi to get here," Nemeth explained.

Plus, the area allows the ability to access major highways and keep the huge buses off Center City streets.

Which, for day one, the buses still made stops at the Market Street location to shuttle confused customers who showed up at the old location.

"The 6th and Market became untenable for bus traffic, federal buildings and surrounding employees in that area. There was a promise by the city, early on in the year, to move that," says Cassidy.

City officials say the new location is only a temporary home until their permit ends in March, as they continue to look for a permanent spot.

For those working nearby the new location, they are now overwhelmed with the additional traffic.

"They have to be able to accommodate everybody, construction workers and the mega buses are taking up the whole back side. What are you going to do about the employees that work here? We pay taxes too," says Nakaya Powell, who works in the area.

Some of the major concerns customers had about the Market Street location was the lack of bathrooms or indoor waiting areas. There is a building where people can wait inside and, as for the bathrooms, the city is working to get some installed.

August 21 st 2024 , To my friend and Husband Coach Frank this road has been far from easy, that's without question, On this day of our Anniversary, I would just like to say thank you for everything you do for me, no matter how BIG or small it's handle with just one phone call or text. I truly appreciate how you've step in fully to assist in coparenting with India getting her to those doctors or dental appointment on days when I can not take of from work, sending her a Uber's to make sure every concert or hair appointment I know she's getting there safely ❤️ or just coming pass to walk Coco and chill with India while I'm still at work. These are the things in my eyes that will never go unnoticed, Anything she asked you for you give it to her. Although her father was murdered when she was just a baby, you never questioned anything or her so on this day, I would truly like to say thank you to my husband and my friend Frank Palmer, for making sure you're two favorite girls are taking care of no matter what! The day of our wedding ceremony you placed the ring and India's finger too, committing to God, to care for our union and family, your children became my children, Your grandchildren became my grandchildren, and nothing has changed to this day. I'm looking forward to the Palmer Caribbean vacation June 2025 with my friend and husband. So on this day August 21, 2024 I like to wish you a very very happy anniversary. Love your wife and Friend Mrs. Frank Palmer ☺☺☺With Separation comes appreciation from both individuals that called growth and maturity we are still one ☺☺

August 21 st 2024 , To my friend and Husband Coach Frank this road has been far from easy, that's without question, On this day of our Anniversary, I would just like to say thank you for everything you do for me, no matter how BIG or small it's handle with just one phone call or text. I truly appreciate how you've step in fully assist in coparenting with India getting her to those doctors or dental appointment on days when I can not take of from work sending her a Uber's to make sure every concert or hair appointment I know she's getting there safely ❤️ or just coming pass to walk Coco and chill with India while I'm still at work. These are the things in my eyes that will never go unnoticed, Anything she asked you for you give it to her. Although her father was murdered when she was just a baby, you never questioned anything or her so on this day, I would truly like to say thank you to my husband and my friend Frank Palmer, for making sure you're two favorite girls are taking care of no matter what! The day of our wedding ceremony you placed the ring and India's finger too, committing to God, to care for our union and family, your children became my children, Your grandchildren became my grandchildren, and nothing has changed to this day. I'm looking forward to the Palmer Caribbean vacation June 2025 with my friend and husband. So on this day August 21, 2024 I like to wish you a very very happy anniversary. Love your wife and Friend Mrs. Frank Palmer                   <img alt="handshake emoji" data-bbox="2713 238 2713

I really don't understand why people think they have the last say so in anything, If a person is out sick and under doctors care I don't give two fucks about anything else! if GOD is my provider and he's always providing. I'm not worried about anything or anyone. What GOD has me is for me. I'm home resting following my doctors orders for my health not for no one else's benefit, not for a job. I run my own business. I'm not doing mines, I'm not doing nothing for nobody ! But when it's them there's no exceptions to them being out of work!but a lot of speculations and questions when it's someone else, My doctors place me out of work are you serious? I said what I said. That's why I went to school to get my own degrees to run my own successful business, because no one will dictate over my life on what I can do, or what I can't do when I'm not feeling well. GOD has always provided for me financially and my daughter and I don't see nothing changing anytime soon! so I will continue to rest at home peacefully, I keep all medical documentation for my records. That's why I record my videos and things because when they want to act crazy I act crazy. I will always cover myself! There's nothing like being self sufficient ! meaning have your own, and that you can make it on your own in situation or circumstance that may arise! That's FAITH! and I have a lot of it AMEN

Being treated for bronchitis, we did lung x-rays and hoping we don't see pneumonia. If that shows I have to come back and get treated for that and get a pump so I will be taking a five day supply of prednisone to open my lungs ☺

Nakaya Powell is with Nakaya's Personal Touch Catering.

Just now ·

As a seasoned professional with 37 years of experience, I recognize the importance of self-investment. This is why I've purchased another new deep fryer, a dual model. My passion for my work remains unwavering, and I'm now passing on my knowledge to my daughter, who shares my enthusiasm for cooking. I'm dedicated to maintaining the excellence associated with my name and brand. Nakaya Powell, CEO of Nakaya's Personal Touch Catering, located in North Philadelphia's Strawberry Mansion area. Stay focused India I'm very proud of you ❤️ we're team baby girl always remember that love always your mother Nakaya 😊

A screenshot of a Facebook mobile post. The post is from 'Nakaya Powell and Nakaya's Personal Touch Catering - Follow' (Public). The status message is: 'I'm beaming with pride as my daughter passed all four parts of her driver's test! As a reward, she's taking my SUV, which is parked right in front of my door. I'm looking forward to finding a new one today, and I hope to have it by Monday. Since she's accomplished this feat, she's earned the SUV, and I'm happy to provide for her in ways that my mother couldn't provide for me. What matters most is that I'm able to give my daughter the opportunities she deserves. I love you, India, and I'll always encourage you to strive for excellence and reach for the stars ✨ @Nakaya Powell See less'. The post has 30 likes, 38 comments, and 138 shares. The post was made at 11:30 and has a battery level of 75%. The user is in PA mode and is a driver for 'Drivers test 4'. The post shows a 'You Passed!' message with 0 errors out of 18 questions, a 'Go to next test' button, and a 'Back to Incorrect & Skipped(0)' button. There is also a 'Restart test' button.

Good morning *. Let's get ready for a day of testing. Have a blessed day. Be safe out there. Keep in mind Some of you do things with your mouth on some of the nastiest people, and some of you don't even brush your teeth, before you come to comments trying to say something about my fur babies. We had to put that out there ☺I said what I said. Tell me I'm lying. I'll wait. ☺ it's there love for me that that matters #Toy poodle #Teacup Yorkie

I had a very productive visit with Paris, the audiologist. She was an excellent listener, for I had never seen her before. She completely monitored my hearing with the machine. She also cleaned my hearing aids. Last but not least, she reconnected my hearing aid with the device, to my phone. I really like her, she is very pleasant, and caring, my husband died in 2024. Now, please tell her that my right hearing aid, just played the Beethoven's fifth. That was my problem in the past. This was Brooke is incredible. Her bedside manner, level of expertise, honesty and concern for your well being made this a better experience than I could have ever imagined!

As we continue to maneuver through 2025 there are some Real adults out here, That's really doing adult things like paying there bills, taking care of their children the pets, while taking care of their own businesses, while still working a 9-5, taking care of the family entity period. It's beneficial to mind your business and not worry about what the next person has going on or what they're doing. When you start to focusing on yourself you don't have time to worry about what other people are doing or asking questions about other folks. Maintain you, do you stop being worried about what other people are doing that's why you become distracted from your task that God has for you in your life Respectfully  #Myhealthmatters

Home is the foundation. Either you're setting your children up to succeed or you're setting them up for failure. Kids today lack the concept of Respect, that's taught in kindergarten, along with the words, thank you, yes please, the Schools aren't the ones responsible for raising your children. It should be their parents, School is a major factor for the foundation of showing respect and mortals to their peers , The behavior that your child sees the conversation that your child hear, they're like sponges they absorb everything, being mindful to what your kids, kids are like sponges, so people can't get mad when they see their children mimicking your lifestyle they're going by what you show them their whole life tell me I'm lying I'll wait I don't give a fuck what I did my daughter ain't never seen me smoking nothing she ain't seen no men in and out my house or in my bed, she knows I worked all my life and that I know how to hustle to get a bag, she I knows I'm independent , I'm a provider and I keeps a clean home , and she know that she has never been without even when she was in kinship care, I was always there, for mine, and I have a strong work ethic and I love the Lord that part for the people in the back that may have something to say, and it's funny me and I had this conversation over the weekend about how many male friends of mine that she knew I dated since she's been born she said 3 I'm 52 years old Yeah I know I'm different. #parentingforreal

Good morning, Ms. Powell,

I am reaching out on behalf of the Girard College Advancement Office. Congratulations, your daughter India received a $8,000 scholarship to assist with tuition cost for Girard College. You will be receiving an official letter in the coming weeks from the Bridge Educational Foundation explaining the details of the award. One of the requirements for the award is to complete community service hours. Please work with Ms. Williams to complete those hours over the course of the year. For your convenience, I've attached the recommended form to complete as you are working on your hours.

If either of you have any questions, please let me know.

Congratulations and all the best to you and India.

Kind Regards,
Ms. Laws

One thing I've learned from my trials and tribulations, and the things that I'm facing, is that I'm doing a lot of things alone, and I'm okay with that, but I'm also empowered by it. A lot of things I'm still facing alone, and I'm okay with that, as long as I keep pushing forward with unwavering resilience. Slow motion is better than no motion, and every step forward is a testament to my unrelenting spirit. I'm one person carrying the weight of 1,000 people, and I know for sure that half the people on my platform wouldn't have been able to withstand the trials and tribulations I've been through, but that's what makes my journey so remarkable. So, at this time, as I continue to rebuild myself, my strength, and my mental state, I'm rising above the ashes, stronger and more determined than ever. I decided in 2024 that I was putting myself first, and that decision has been the catalyst for my transformation. You can't keep pouring into cups that don't pour back into yours, and that's a valuable lesson I've learned along the way. That's with marriages, friendships, and family - the list goes on and on. I'm on a spiritual, mental, and financial growth mission to compensate for all the things I've been through in the last few years, and I'm committed to emerging victorious. I expressed in 2024 that 2025 is personal - it's about me making sure I get myself to the next level, making sure I'm mentally, physically, and financially stable, to ensure my daughter isn't lacking or wanting for anything. The keyword for me is reciprocation, and I'm dedicated to pouring love, care, and positivity back into myself. The love and self-care that I'm pouring back into me is not up for negotiation with anyone. ❤️ always remember friendships that is built on real love and trust will never stray, everyone needs their own space and time to grow into heal, Amen

The main content section is titled "Family Engagement Association" and describes the group as a network for parents and guardians of current students, led by an Executive Committee. It lists the FEA's role, which includes supporting student programming, parent/guardian education, faculty/staff appreciation, and communication. Below this, there is a section for "Monthly Meetings" with a note about the 2023-24 schedule.

Family Engagement Association

The Family Engagement Association (FEA) is a group for all parents and guardians of current Girard College students. Led by an Executive Committee, the FEA partners with school leadership and supports school initiatives.

The FEA's role includes:

- Supporting student programming through volunteering and fundraising
- Supporting parent/guardian educational opportunities
- Implementing faculty/staff appreciation efforts
- Promoting communication within the school community

Monthly Meetings

All Girard College parents and guardians are invited to attend the monthly FEA meetings to discuss school program, plan events, and get to know one another.
