A screenshot of a Pinterest profile for 'Nareh Kyababchyan'. The profile picture is a large, light gray circle containing a dark gray letter 'N'. Below the picture, the name 'Nareh Kyababchyan' is displayed in a large, bold, black sans-serif font. Underneath the name is a smaller text 'narehkyababchya' with a small purple Pinterest icon to its left. Below this, the text '1 following' is shown. To the right of the following text are three buttons: a light gray 'Message' button with a white envelope icon, a red 'Follow' button with white text, and a gray '...' button. At the bottom of the profile, there are two tabs: 'Created' and 'Saved', with a horizontal line underneath 'Saved' indicating it is the active tab. A large, semi-transparent gray box is overlaid on the bottom left of the profile, containing a block of text about self-reliance.

Some people aren't good at asking for help because they're so used to being 'the helper'. Throughout their life they've experienced an unbalanced give and take, so their instinct is usually "I'll figure it out on my own". The self-reliance is all they've ever known.

"Good morning IG fam! just here to say, that if you want it, go do it. Don't let anyone stop you from pursuing. all is possible if you work towards it. 3 years ago i was in zoom classes at LARS learning to produce with students who all had a similar dream as mine, we were all coming together to be heard and seen in the name of MUSIC. looking back, remembering being in classes filled with talented individuals, every day, it brought a sense of hope and calmness that we are all fighting to make it to the top, together. We had no clue how it's gna happen, but we knew we had to make it happen. i wish my fellow classmates all the strength and dedication to make it happen. who would've known, 3 years later we're living out our dreams. i see you all, im so proud of everyone, we're literally doing it fam @lafilmschool @larecordingschool"

"CAPTION TIME !!i woke up this morning realizing how grateful i am of this life that i've chosen. at times things can seem impossible and out of reach but im learning that everything is in-fact at arms reach, you just gotta extend and let your body follow. in my short time of pursuing my dreams i have been able to do so much, at times i ask why me? there are far more qualified people that can be doing it before i should get the chance to. but then i view things in perspective and understand that i am doing the work, i am trying, i am on a day-to-day basis scratching the walls to get an inch closer. it's a daily battle, and at times it can really knock you off your feet and all the comparing starts to seep in, but let me tell you something, you just want to be good..& that's okay but comparison is the thief of joy. i am not in denial, we've all been there, we've all questioned this at one point, BUT, im seriously settling in and understanding that it's wrong. everyone has their pace and PURPOSE. what you want i may not want, what i want may not be what you want, & that is also okay. i keep it as real and genuine as i can cause that's all i know how to be. im a firm believer that what you give out is what comes back to you. do it cause it's right, don't follow a trend, make a trend. respect is earned not given, and like i always say..music is for real the answer. so get to work :) shot by @callmecasper.x_x"
