2025 is off to a crazy start. I started a new job training as a CAD engineer. I spent a week in Hawaii with my Girlfriend. Went exploring some mines in southwest Wisconsin with my Brothers. And I drove 23 hours roundtrip for my first project vehicle of the year.

Life is crazy, God is good, and 2025 is gonna be a great year!!

One day closer to discharge. The MRI came back clear so the neck brace came off this morning. That's such good news and made Roland happy cuz he hated that thing. He had speech and physical therapy and did good at both. He's even more awake and aware today and figured out what actually happened to him after jogging his memory where he was at and what he was doing. Thank you to everyone who is praying and has sent messages.

Transmission decided to stop functioning last week on the daily so swap is under way. And yes I pulled the drivetrain out of the bottom without a lift.

First cage build I've done. Well kind of, Tyler Svoke picked up a 2017 bolt in Mustang cage on the low and it looked like it would kinda work in the E30 so I took him up on the project and it turned out way better then we expected. Cut it all apart, welded it up and now this little drift car is pretty much ready for comp next weekend.

Hit a deer with my RAV4 a couple weeks ago and totalled it so I finally bit the bullet and bought something rly nice for a daily. 2009 Toyota Tacoma Crewcab TRD off-road package. Meticulously maintained, one owner since new. So far I love it, gonna see how long I can go without modifying it. ☐

Picked up this W203 in a partial trade for some work I did for Tyler Svoke. It is rust free with 80k original miles so it obviously needs some cosmetic work, but I need ideas on what to do with it. ☐

This is the most recent post on this account. 2025 is off to a crazy start. I started a new job training as a CAD engineer. I spent a week in Hawaii with my Girlfriend. Went exploring some mines in southwest Wisconsin with my Brothers. And I drove 23 hours roundtrip for my first project vehicle of the year. Life is crazy, God is good, and 2025 is gonna be a great year!! Queue a few photos and videos from this Jan.
