Pasadena, CA (pressreleasepower) November 24, 2020 – Dewey Pest Control, the largest family owned pest control company in California, recently opened a new office in Santa Maria, CA to better service the growth and demand for pest control and termite services in the California Central Coast area.

In addition to the corporate headquarters in Pasadena, California, the new office location is in Santa Maria, CA and supports the company's growth strategy. This new service location will expand Dewey Pest Control to 33 locations in California.

"The decision to expand our business into the Santa Maria area was a logical step in our business growth strategy," said Chip Dewey, Vice President. "The area is rich with residential homes and diverse businesses that are perfect for Dewey Pest Control services." Brock Dewey, Executive Vice President stated, "We have the opportunity to further expand staffing and technicians for pest control services, as well as increase our ability to service current and future markets."

About Dewey Pest Control:

Dewey Pest Control was founded by Ray M. Dewey in 1929. It began as a one-man operation, and since then has flourished into an organization of hundreds of technicians, crew workers, inspectors, fumigators, and office personnel. Dewey Services, Inc. owns and operates 33 branches throughout the State of California. If you are looking for a great career, we are recruiting and hiring for managers, sales professionals, technicians, termite inspectors, and offices professionals. Dewey is hiring. Join our winning team!

We are extremely sorry to say that we lost a shining light...our son, brother and friend, Dustin Bumsted. He was smart, funny and extremely charismatic. If you met him, you liked him immediately. If you got to know him, you loved him, unconditionally. His hugs were to be remembered and if Dustin couldn't make you laugh, no one could! He was also a smart one! We challenged him many times at Jeopardy and he would kick our ass! The joke therein was that he had a "plethora of useless information". The void he has left cannot be filled. In remembrance, please take a moment to say "I love you" to those you care about. Life has proven to be way too short. Alexandra Bumsted

I would highly recommend there services. They took good care of my daughter and I at a very difficult time. There was no pressure. Bridget was so kind and caring.

I made an appointment thinking it would take about a hour for a simple oil change. It was over 2 hours and they weren't even able to complete the complimentary carwash in that time frame. I just didn't feel like I got the service that I have become used to from other Ford dealerships.

Scott was the devoted husband of Tracy Estrada, with whom he built a home centered on kindness, support, and laughter. He was the proud father of two children, cherishing his time with his family above all else. Though he experienced the heartbreak of losing his son Dustin Bumsted, Scott's love endured in the close bond he maintained with his daughter. His guidance and affection will continue to resonate in her life.

Scott also took immense joy in his role as a grandfather and was overjoyed to be soon welcoming his third grandchild (Lennon Dee). Though he has left this earthly life, his family finds comfort knowing he will be watching over her from heaven.

A charismatic and understanding man, Scott was known for his ability to find lightness even in the most challenging times. He was quick to forgive, always ready with a warm smile or a joke to ease the day. His family, friends, and community will remember him for his unwavering support and generous spirit.

Scott's memory will live on in the hearts of those he loved and inspired. He leaves a legacy of compassion, humor, and resilience that will be cherished always.

Scott was preceded in death by his son Dustin Michael Bumsted. His father, Larry Bumsted. His brother, Daniel Bumsted. His brother, Gregory Bumsted. His sister, Cynthia Bumsted. His maternal grandparents Mildred and Millard Allman and his paternal grandparents, Helen and Gaylord Bumsted.
