"Want to join me in supporting a good cause? I'm raising money for American Cancer Society and your contribution will make an impact, whether you donate $5 or $500. Every little bit helps. Thank you for your support. I've included information about American Cancer Society below. The American Cancer Society is leading the fight for a world without cancer. We’re finding cures and doing so much more. • We’re supporting patients with free lodging near hospitals, free rides to treatment, and our live 24/7 cancer helpline. • We’re providing information, tools and services to help people cope with the challenges and questions that come with a cancer diagnosis. • We’re making breakthroughs in research and urging lawmakers to improve access to care. When it comes to cancer, we are the only organization attacking from every angle. Facebook pays all the processing fees for you, so 100% of your donation goes directly to the nonprofit."

SKOWHEGAN — Police officers who conducted a traffic stop over the weekend found an 8-year-old child in an SUV with three adults who were in possession of several grams of fentanyl and crack cocaine, authorities said Monday.

A Mitsubishi SUV was stopped by police Saturday on Madison Avenue and in addition to the 8-year-old, they found 21 grams of fentanyl and more than 30 grams of crack cocaine, police Chief David Bucknam said in a news release.

Taken into custody were Trisha Bennett, 43, of Norridgewock; Terry Nurmi, 46, of Skowhegan; and Taron Ross, 25. Police did not provide a hometown for Ross, only saying that he's a resident of New York.

The child is the daughter of Bennett and Nurmi, Bucknam said. The girl was later handed over to family members.

Bennett, Nurmi and Ross are being held without bail at the Somerset County Jail.

Bennett was charged with aggravated trafficking of a scheduled drug, endangering the welfare of a child and operating under the influence of drugs. Nurmi was charged with aggravated trafficking of a scheduled drug and endangering the welfare of a child. Ross was charged with aggravated trafficking of a scheduled drug.

"I don’t know what is going on but I swear for the six months it feels like I have no one, absolutely no one really reaches out me nor do they want to actually hang and do something. I thought I had people even bartending is like wow lately cause who I thought I had for customers and people who actually thought I was a good person are no where around now. It’s the craziest thing. Well here’s to that this is year I’m gonna figure out what I’m doing where I want to go or where I want to live cause I need a new beginning clearly. Understandable that people are older now and we have lives but we all have 2 mins out of the day to check on someone or maybe I really am just a bitch and to blunt but screw I’m not changing that that’s who I am maybe I need to find the peace inside myself cause it would be easier to not care then"

Auburn (Maine) Police Department
April 29, 2023 ·

HUGE FENTANYL SHIPMENT INTERCEPTED; ARREST MADE | On Friday April 28, 2023, a large wooden crate was delivered to a local restaurant in Auburn from the State of Arizona. Employees of the restaurant believed the crate to contain a shipment of mugs they had recently ordered. When employees opened the crate, they located a plastic tote, which contained what the employees believed was a significant quantity of illegal drugs. The tote bore a shipping label with the address of the restaurant and a contact name of "Jeremy Mercier," who is not an employee of the restaurant.

At approximately 12:36PM, Auburn Police were called to the restaurant. Upon arrival, officers examined the shipment and confirmed the employees' suspicions. Auburn PD officer and detectives secured the crate and transported it to the police department, where a chemical field examination was conducted. The substance was identified as Fentanyl, a scheduled "W" drug.

Approximately one hour later, officers and detectives intercepted Jeremy Mercier at the restaurant when he arrived asking about the shipment. Mercier - 41y/o of Auburn - was placed under arrest. Upon further investigation, it was determined that Mercier is currently out on pre-conviction bail for an unrelated criminal charge.

Mercier has a previous Federal conviction for the distribution of cocaine, for which he was convicted on August 13, 2007. Mercier served several years in Federal prison for that conviction.

Auburn Police seized approximately $2,780.00 from Mercier as evidence of drug proceeds and 14 kilos of suspected Fentanyl with a re-sale street value of more than $3 million dollars. Mercier is being held at the Androscoggin County Jail with no bail, charged with the following new criminal conduct as a result of this incident:

* Aggravated Illegal Importation of Scheduled Drugs - Class A - Felony
* Aggravated Trafficking of Scheduled Drugs - Class A - Felony
* Violation of Conditional Release - Class E - Misdemeanor

"This is an active, ongoing investigation and we do anticipate that our state and federal partners will be joining this investigation," said Deputy Chief Tim Cougle. Additional details on this case will be forthcoming as the investigation continues.

I know one and he knows who he is I'll pray for you

Narcissist

Someone who has little to no empathy, manipulates others, gaslights (makes others doubt their reality), lies incessantly, believes their own lies. They make you doubt your emotions and then call you crazy. They rage for absolutely no reason and you end up apologizing. It can be a parent, friend, brother, sister, boss, spouse. In the beginning they love bomb you into believing they are prince/princess charming. Then they slowly start to abuse you to have you believe you are insane. It's all to control you. They will isolate you from your family and friends. You will leave the relationship someone you weren't. You will appear confused, unable to make your own decisions, depressed, anxious and with complex PTSD. So, RUN FAR AWAY RUN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

You will make that a home just like you have others in the past. You just need to get everything put away so it doesn't feel so cluttered. You make your home a home, the house doesn't make your home. You have your dog and you're not homeless all pluse...

his body was found at a lisbon recycling plant where he was employed. also the note wasn't a suicide note. it was all of his financial information for his son.

"It so sad watching my brother deteriorate in front of us from ALS this disease is so powerful it’s been about 8 months since she found out and I feel so horribly bad for my mother Cindy Bourdeau who has to watch her best friend fall apart he can hardly walk anymore the tears roll down your cheeks cause what can you do to help but try to give him the last few months of his life the best you possible can. It hurts really bad cause we may have to put his beautiful soul down next week and I’m worried for my mom her heart is going to hurt so bad and all I can do is comfort her through it all. That pain won’t go anywhere but I can try my hardest to make it easier for her. You realize our pets are our family hence why I call him brother this guy chose me when he was a baby he wouldn’t leave me alone and I made her take him home with us I remember the first day I got him to go outside in the snow and as he grew he loved the outdoors like no other it’s been hard for me to visit cause I’m not good with this type of pain but I love him dearly and will miss his excitement and his playfulness so much I will keep him in my heart forever and always I will stay posted on what has to be done from to day til next week"

I would be the sales rep at Walmart Biddeford Hannaford Biddeford and landrys in oob oh and I think Shaws Saco lots of money to make in these stores through the winter it will give me some time to figure them all out two of them are stores I have been working for a year so let's get this money baby lord knows I have busted my ass to leave the life I once lived alone sometimes it's tempting but screw that I have been through to much and can only see the sun shinning and a new out look on everything here to taken no shit an striving to become the best me I can be at this moment"

"He couldn’t have said this more better I was the problems many many years ago I walked away cause I saw first hand that damage I cause to not only those families but my own never a day in my life again will I ever be the problem again it’s a sad situation cause I walk with guilt everyday from what I did I’m still learning the new me 10 years later I have been the victim then became the problem it’s not easy walking in my shoes everyday knowing that people think I’m worth something but inside from what I have done I feel worth nothing and no one will every understand what I feel no one has walked in my shoes and no would have ever wanted too the things I have seen the life I have lived most would have killed themselves sometimes I wonder if this is why I mental abuse myself on a daily this is why I look in the mirror and see a ugly person a person with no soul but no one will ever understand that never I could tell a story every day for the rest of my life about my past and isn’t a good book it’s a painful one I try everyday to do right I try everyday to smile I try everyday to forget but there is always something that reminds me of my horrors I just want to feel free of it I have tried to find my solitude for 10 years and still struggle to find it I’m sorry if you don’t understand and I’m sorry if you don’t get it but put my shoes on for a week and tell me what you feel then say I’m wrong for my pain"

Tax his land,
Tax his bed,
Tax the table
At which he's fed.
Tax his work,
Tax his pay,
He works for peanuts
Anyway!
Tax his cow,
Tax his goat,
Tax his pants,
Tax his coat.
Tax his tobacco,
Tax his drink,
Tax him if he
Tries to think.
Tax his car,
Tax his gas,
Find other ways
To tax his ass.
Tax all he has
Then let him know
That you won't be done
Till he has no dough.
When he screams and hollers;
Then tax him some more.
Tax him till
He's good and sore.
Then tax his coffin,
Tax his grave,
Tax the sod in
Which he's laid.
When he's gone,
Do not relax,
Its time to apply
The inheritance tax.

BIDDEFORD, MAINE- The Maine Drug Enforcement Agency announces a second person has been charged related to the investigation and the seizure of over seven (7) pounds of fentanyl in Biddeford on May 1, 2024.

Charged was:

Alyssa Staples 23, of Biddeford for Unlawful Aggravated Trafficking in Schedule Drugs, (Fentanyl) Class A
Aggravated enhancement due to total drug weights and firearm possession.

On May 1, 2024, MDEA agents arrested Almuntadhar M. Mohammed for drug trafficking warrants after an eight-month investigation involving Mohammed selling fentanyl to undercover agents in Cumberland and York counties. During a search warrant at Mohammed's Ray Street, Biddeford apartment, agents seized over 7 pounds of fentanyl, a loaded firearm and other items indicative of drug trafficking.

On May 2, 2024, agents charged Mohammed with an additional 5 counts of Unlawful Aggravated Trafficking in Schedule W Drugs (Fentanyl) related to the seizure of the over seven pounds of fentanyl and firearm from the Ray Street apartment on May 1, 2024.

Based on evidence seized during the May 1st, Ray Street, Biddeford search warrant and fentanyl seizure, agents charged Alyssa Staples with Unlawful Aggravated Trafficking in Schedule W Drugs (Fentanyl). Staples and Mohammed are in a domestic relationship and live together at the Ray Street apartment.

Staples was charged by summons with an initial appearance court date of July 30, 2024, in York Unified Court.

*Given Staples was charged by summons and not transported to jail her photo can be found on MDEA's Facebook page. *

The investigation is continuing, and additional arrests and charges are anticipated.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

The MDEA stands committed to working with all federal, state, county, and local law enforcement partners in order to continue to identify and disrupt drug trafficking organizations who are attempting to distribute illicit drugs like fentanyl and methamphetamine in the State of Maine.

If you or someone you know suffers with substance, use disorder, please call 211 or text your zip code to 898-211 for a list of resources available in your area.

If you have information about this investigation or the illegal sale of drugs in your community, you are urged to contact the Maine Drug Enforcement office closest to you or by texting MDEA to TIP411 (847411) or by calling the MDEA tip-line at 1-800-452-6457.

Doesn't matter where they're from. Rent is crazy all across the country. That looks like a real nice apartment though based off the kitchen in itself..... I don't agree with all the rent increases cuz I don't have it a hard time finding a place myself where theres a will,theres a way.I strongly suggest food delivery as well.also you could apply at mbh group homes as a crna.it pays good and the job isnt hard.they certify you and everything.something to look into.my man works for mbh.but putting yourself down wont solve anything.you gotta stay positive!lifes what you make it and we have more control over our lives than you may think.manifest what you want your life to be then put the work in.

Trisha Bennett ok and again life is what you make it and being negative talking down on yourself doesnt help either.all im saying is theres a way.theres a lot of people who achieve greatness with a criminal background.the only thing stopping you is yourself.being positive and having a positive mindset is a start.Also,everyone is just trying to help you.Swearing at me isn't necessary.

Trisha Bennett I don't blame you for being mad. But definitely get cameras just so that way when you either call the cops or confront this fucker, you have actual proof just so that way you don't end up in jail.

The more hidden, the more detrimental it can be to your nervous system because nowhere feels safe when no one knows and/or doesn't "see it" you are left alone and vulnerable to threats almost always without any support. This keeps you locked in to fight, flight, fawn, flop, freeze.
Do not minimize what's happening, you are worthy and deserving of so much better even when you've been conditioned to not believe it and there ARE people out there who will be there for you and support you.

U gotta luv urself first!! U r worthy of luv and being loved and giving luv u have to heal from the pain and let it go tomorrow morning wen u wake up take a deep breath stretch drink a glass of water and think about how u want ur day to go and wat u want to do in ur day. Then take majesty for her walk and whatever else is ur routine and take back control of ur life don't let it consume u anymore. U cud go to church wit stewy or by yourself and whoever. Find positive groups on Facebook that send u positive quotes daily all the lil things that enter ur thoughts to fill ur head wit happy thoughts

Well, if the weather's not bad, will end up doing some, but if it is, we're gonna have to wait. Maybe if you take a bigger leap at getting yourself together would help.

Pick yourself up and find yourself. You are the only one that can do it. If you get back on track, things will fall into place. If you want your girl back in your life, you have to work hard for it now. Think of what is important and go for it as hard as you can.

You need to be strong not just for yourself but for your children hold that head up high reach for the stars
Leave the past in the past harder said than done
But you got this
Try and light a candle breath in breath out relax and just let the hurt flow let out scream yell or cry do whatever gets alll the anger outta you GONNA
Believe in yourself
Love thyself
Hold yourself together
BE STRONG
Have faith
You got this
You can become whoever you want you control your life and what you want
I believe in you

You say you love her but do you still think that when 3 week into a depressive episode. Or what she's asking a million questions because she's anxious, or when she's crying about the smallest things. Or when she's overstimulatedb and can't even speak. When you say you love her, do you really mean all of her?

I've invited you many times to come up here and stay overnight or something and talk but you don't want to. I'm sorry I'm straightforward. It's just my way but I see how bad you're hurting yourself and the people around you. Because you're not getting the help you need and you're not trying to get the help you needyou need to put yourself in the hospital.

Trisha Bennett Your mom did have issues. She knows she didn't do everything right, but she has been there for you in your adult life. She has never walked away from you. She has your best interest in her mind. Don't put the guilt on her. If you are going to detox, don't talk about it, just do it. Step 1. While in detox, get some emotional help from a counselor. Step 2. Take responsibility and brush yourself off and work hard at fixing you. You are the only one that can do that. No one wants to see you fail.

Trisha Bennett Trisha I'm not gonna do this on Facebook, but I went through sweets with you. I was there every single frigging day and the minute I decided I want it one day off you kicked my window in of my car. I would leave work to come to try to calm you down at school at sweeter so I'm not gonna hear how much of a asshole I was as a mother yeah I screwed up a whole lot and I know thatbut you have screwed up way worse and you're not trying to get help

Trisha Bennett So, please know that I am not calling you stupid, I just hope you are able to pick yourself up. He has not, even with how bad things get. No matter what I said to him or tried to do for him, it wasn't enough. I could not fix him, your mom can't fix you. It sounds to me like you have reached your bottom and now it's time to climb back up. You can do it.

BREAKING NEWS

Update to this **
5/3/25
I had found this article on FB and couldn't share it so i copied and pasted it without proper context ...
I have currently found that it no way is it a Truck Driver i did post another link yesterday about it

Police in New England are investigation a potential Serial killer who they believe to be roaming the Interstates along the Eastern Seaboard.

Police say the most recent body was discovered on Friday in Taunton Massachusetts and then on Sunday a body was also found in the Connecticut river near Rocky Hill. Rocky hill is located very near the I-91 Corridor.

Just a week before the Sundays Discovery., another body was found along the same corridor near Springfield Massachusetts. The I-91 corridor also runs through New Haven Connecticut were another body was also discovered before the most recent incident.

Over the past several months police say 10 bodies have been found up and down various east coast interstates and most of the victims are female. Police have not ruled out the possibility that the perpetrator is a truck driver.

Police say there is a high probability that there are far more victims yet to be discovered based on the rate bodies are piling up but are dispelling the notion or idea of a "gear jamming psychopathic serial killer" roaming the east coast.
