Do not let the hero in your soul perish in the lonely frustration for the life you deserved and have never been able to reach. The world you desire can be won. It exists. It is real. It is possible. It is yours ☺. Don't let things you cant control put your spark out. You can grieve for the person you were, the person you lost. But after a while you have to rebuild and regrow. You thrive to see the orange flame colors dance upon the skies While I wait for the darkness to engulf it You were my flame, and now I'm nothing but charred remains left behind. After DOI, multiple photos of the sky Caption: ☺ Our first outing I took you to my favorite places downtown
But I just was just so happy to be with you I took you to my favorite pier And we watched the clouds For the first time I was seeing images in them We laughed at what we saw You ruined my favorite place, I hardly go back now Except to cry I try not to find pictures in the sky anymore, because when I do, I wonder if you'd see the same images You made me want to be better for you, and I wasn't ready. I fought so hard against it You told me I was the one I believed you were my soulmate And I fought so hard against it Because I never thought I would deserve that I never felt like I was enough I told my mother, I wanted to show you what real love was like But when I had you in my reach, I tainted it You touched a part of me that wanted to share all my deep dark secrets But instead I used it as a weapon to push you away, I was scared I didn't think I deserved you I wanted to be family I wanted to be with you But my family was always filed with darkness I still think you were my soulmate, and I don't think I'll find that feeling again But the last words you told me, that will always haunt me, it's not even in the back of my mind after all this time- it's still screaming in my face "You were just a warm body to get a dick wet to" I've heard so many hurtful things, but nothing that ever destroyed me like that A boulder that weighs on me and still suffocates me I struggle to breath Like I'm falling off a cliff grasping for a ledge to save me As i rip my finger nails off, only to fail and bleed out I'm struggling to catch my breath as I keep getting slammed by the cliff, over and over It feels like it will never end Sometimes I still do watch the clouds But only to see them separate and glide further apart from each other I wish I would separate my feelings from myself like the clouds So effortlessly and gracefully You ruined my favorite places I wish I could fade like the clouds . . . #mywords #poetry #loveloss #tampa

After DOI, post shows a sunset and Subject sitting in a car Caption: I wish we met as kids, you would have loved the softer version of me. The version my mother wishes she could still see She used to love love, now dates men like her father Her feelings bottled up to avoid being a bother The softer version of me wasn't always this angry I didn't use to beg people around me "please come back and save me" I wish you'd known her before the world gave her reasons to hide Before she started shrinking herself Felt like the only way to survive, she knew what it felt like to be wanted, to be held without fear. She wasn't ghost of a person made of silence and swallowed tears. She'd write herself letters about dreams, too big to fit in her chest. Now she writes to remember the pieces of her that she's put to rest. I wish you knew her before she flinched at every touch before the world was too heavy and love was too much I wish you met her , before the world taught her to stay small when her laughter could fill rooms before she stopped laughing at all, and every night she whispers to herself in the dark when no one else can see. I wish you met her the softer version of me. The version of me wish I still could be- HayleyGrace . . #poem #skies #florida #floridasky #sunset #clouds #her #love

Other Districts	$151,276	$66,056	$31,056	$25,000

Note: This section shows Market Value, Assessed Value, Exemptions, and Taxable Value for taxing districts. Because of changes in Florida Law, it is possible to have different assessed and taxable values on the same property. For example, the additional $25,000 Homestead Exemption and the non-homestead CAP do not apply to public schools, and the Low Income Senior Exemption only applies to countywide and certain municipal millages.
